

NEW LOOK AND ENHANCED

PERSONALIZED RELATIONSHIP ANALYSIS

Dear XYZ,

“It is with great pleasure that we present you your personal astrological signatures in a complete new look with added features in Relationship Analysis report.”

We thank you for giving us the opportunity to analyse your birth charts.

It is not Vedic Astrology’s purpose to replace an individual’s responsibility to decide for themselves or to present a fait accompli forecast for the future. We believe that you control and shape your own destiny by your Karma and your efforts. However, this report tells you, how much and when the planets will be supportive for you or they will be challenging and can create obstacles and difficulties on your path.

We believe that stars will influence only 75%, and rest 25% is controlled by your own actions. However, sometimes that 75% may become critical over which you may not have any control.

Preamble:

XYZ and ABC, both of you are in love with each other, and both of you are planning to get married to each other during July/August, 2010. Both of you have very similar background being from Iran and now settled in Germany. As you will go through this report, you will also discover, similarities in your personalities, as well as the challenges and opportunities in your relationship with each other as revealed by your respective astrological charts.

Ascendant Compatibility:

Ascendant is the most unique signature in our horoscope. Ascendant (Janma Lagna) in our chart signifies the way we shall express our body, mind and soul to the world at large in this life. Ascendant compatibility will give important clues to our personality and nature. It also gives us important clues to our personality and nature and the way we shall interact with our partner in our life together.

XYZ's Ascendant:

Your Ascendant is Virgo, which is ruled by Mercury. Virgo is a dual sign with earth element. As sign number 6, it shows the need for balancing energy, particularly between body and mind. Being ruled by Mercury, you will possess good intellects, command of the language, and nervous sensitivity. You are also likely to have artistic inclinations or musical ability. Being of earth sign, at one level, you will be practical and pragmatic. Your knowledge and action will be seldom theoretical. It will be usually tied to some form of practical manifestation. Your fate is largely dependent on your social situation. Though you may lack deterministic ambition, but you can be still persistent to pursue your goals in life. You are very orderly, critical, systematic and often self-centred. You will have a tendency to create a special island around yourself, your special space and your privacy, which you would not allow others even your life partner to invade that space. Others may perceive you to be self centred or even selfish, but it is often counteracted by sympathy or the troubles of others. Being helpful and service oriented, you are good worker, but you can suffer from overwork or by lack of recognition from others who can take you for granted. Sexually you tend to be shy when young, but you may be prone to excessive sexual activity, when older, but it is seldom open or freely expressed. Lord of Ascendant, Mercury is located in 4th house in your chart. The 4th house is the house of domestic bliss and harmony. It signifies your emotional and material security in life. In relationship with your life partner also, your primary motivation will be domestic bliss and harmony in your life together.

ABC's Ascendant:

Her ascendant is also Virgo. In many ways, astrologically also both of you have very similar nature. So far the way you two project yourselves externally to the world at large. However, in her chart, the lord of Ascendant Mercury is located in her 8th house in the chart. 8th house signifies Karmic closer and the end of life. Unlike XYZ, she will be somewhat fatalistic in her approach towards her life including relationship.

Both of you have Pluto located in your Ascendant, Virgo. Both of you will interact with each other very intensely as well as your entire personality will be greatly influenced because of your generational contact being of similar age and both of you must have subjected to similar psychological, political and global changes in your lives.

The interaction between your two Ascendants:

You will interact with each other critically like that of two "expert advisors". For a Sign that loves sanity, this combination can be preciousness gone mad! Everything is checked and scrutinized, fixed when it does not need fixing, to the point that life is all preparation and no living. An eternal dress rehearsal. However if both of you can put up with this, such joint efficiency and precision will benefit someone else may be your would be progeny. Your ordering this report, when both of you have decided to get married to each other is again manifestation of this precision and efficiency. The point is in search for precision do not lose the emotion and love, the very reason for which you have come together.

THE DIALECTICS OF RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE TWO OF YOU:

Since both of you have same ascendant, so the predictions are same for both of you in this case.

For XYZ's:

Leanings

Purity- This is a much-misunderstood concept, which you can fall foul of because it is central to this Theme. The Latin Virgo refers to something which is nothing but itself - that is, not sullied by anything or missing anything. So your relationship has a distinct quality and purpose that must be identified so that it may be worked upon, improved, and kept intact.

Health- The promotion and maintenance of health - be it mental, physical, emotional or spiritual - is an issue that should concern you. Such health, and a helpfulness which characterizes it, may be extended to the human, animal, vegetable, mineral or abstract realms.

Order- Legendary Virgoan tidiness is one of the issues here. This relationship likes to have a sense of order about it, so both of your maintaining domestic and personal tidiness and hygiene is important, as too is being precise in what you say and do together.

Advantages

Sobriety- This may sound like a rather dull asset but it does in fact go a long way towards keeping your relationship on an even keel. And should there be an indulgent streak in you too, you are aware of it and keep it within healthy bounds.

Idiosyncrasy- There is a quality to your relationship that is both complex and unique. Others may find it difficult to see what you have going for you in some respects, but that is because you have this like which is exquisitely personal. An aspect of love you could call the 'glass slipper'.

Hard-working- Industriousness is an integral part of the fabric of your relationship. You do not mind time apart spent working, and you work together quite happily too. Moreover, you are a service to others, and you (should) also work at improving your relationship itself.

Weaknesses

Fussiness- Avoid a neurotic need for order, for this would be counter productive. This is most likely to manifest in being over critical of one another, or of those around you. Underlying such a corrosive inclination as this is a lack of acceptance of something within yourselves as individuals.

Inhibition- You may not notice it, but lurking somewhere within your relationship is a fear of doing or saving something. This may well be sexual in nature. It is a if you are afraid to expose or plunge into some issue- but failing to do this could cause this very thing to go critical

Parsimony- Together you should have a natural sense of economy. Unfortunately, this can devolve into a stinginess with yourselves and others you have dealings with. Really, this is emotional in nature for it smacks of being afraid or reluctant to give something of yourselves away. You probably think there is something about you that is too personal or would be censored, but you would be wrong in thinking this.

For ABC's:

Leanings

The Moon-Sign Compatibility:

Moon in our horoscope shows our general propensity for relationship and how we will interact with our partner in life together. The moon gives us sensitivity of human feeling, a strong social consciousness, and a need to exchange emotions. It makes us require that our feelings are recognized in life and shared by others.

XYZ's Moon-sign is Pisces which is ruled by Jupiter. Pisces is a dual sign with water element.

ABC's Moon-Sign is Scorpio, which is ruled by Mars and is the sign of debilitation for Moon. Scorpio is a fixed sign, also with water element.

Since both of you share the same water element, so the relationship-- it's what, how and why will be very important for both of you.

THE INTERACTION BETWEEN THE TWO MOON SIGNS:

You relate to each other Intuitively like "the spy and the messiah". You both have a strong bond but a strange one. There are deep and mysterious elements to your relationship that only reveal themselves in the fullness of time and then maybe not at all. Being both intuitive and emotional, you are attuned to this submerged agenda and remain true to it and each other- barring the occasional reef, that is.

COMPATIBILITY ANALYSIS FROM DIFFERENT ASPECTS (8-FOLD TESTS)

The horoscope matching that is done in traditional Vedic astrology is essentially based on the compatibility between Moon-signs in the respective charts of the couple. This is called "Kundali Milapak" report between the two charts.

Kundali Milapak is a unique and ancient 8-fold test of horoscope matching between a man and woman's charts for marriage. This ancient technique of Vedic Astrology was formulated about 3,000 years ago and compares various aspects of the natal chart taking the Moon sign in the chart as the primary factor.

The Natal Charts of the man and woman are drawn and comparatively tested in eight different ways. Each test has a score. While the maximum points that can be achieved under each test are different, the 8-fold test can yield a maximum score of 36 points. A score of 16 is deemed to be the minimum for a reasonable match. Marriages are not recommended for a result below 16.

Modern Relevance

Since these tests were formulated 3,000 years ago and based on the social norms and the role of marriage in the ancient society, we have also made this ancient test applicable to the new millennium by pointing out the basis of how the tests were scored, so that you can apply your own judgment of how important a particular aspect is in your personal relationship.

Although the techniques and the basis of this comparison originated in ancient times, the analysis has not lost its relevance today. This analysis brings out the difference in personality and nature between two people in a quantitative and more precise manner than any other astrological tool. It proves to be very accurate and relevant even today in gauging compatibility and the areas of strengths and weakness in a relationship.

The Scoring System

In presenting you this analysis, we have maintained the integrity of ancient principles in the scoring system and the weightage given to various aspects. However, we want you to understand the principles behind it completely, so that you can understand the various aspects of your relationship in which you are completely compatible and where the problem areas may lie so that you are able to work on it.

In ancient times, the fundamental purpose of marriage was to carry on the lineage in a manner that increased the material and spiritual prosperity of the couple within the norms of social behaviors in that time. It is also to be understood that Women had been relegated to a subordinate or inferior role in the Man/Woman Relationship. The role of the woman, be it the Queen or the wife of an ordinary man in society, was at home and the primary responsibility was to look after the comforts of the husband, take care of the children as well as his parents and his entire family.

The system by which this test assigns scores is that when and if in a relationship, the horoscope chart of a woman rates higher and is superior in intellectual, mental or physical powers than the chart of the man's, then the test will fail and there will be a low score or a zero score. The highest score is also given in this test in a woman's ability to be a mother.

We encourage you to study this test very closely for its ability to point out the difference in personality and ego between two different people and their strengths and weakness in maintaining a nurturing, caring and growing relationship over time.

I will advise both of you to go through this report very carefully and understand the significance of each of the 8 tests of compatibility and also the significance of the score obtained by each of the 8 tests.

The First Test: Mental Compatibility (Varna)

This test has a maximum value of 1 point and shows the basic potential of a person and the person's inherent skills and abilities. This also includes the personal egos of the partners and compatibility between their egos. A partnership in which the woman has higher intellectual and spiritual qualities will score low in this test.

For purposes of this test, personalities are divided into four classes to indicate potential and inherent abilities. They are as follows:

Brahmin or Priests - They are the intellectuals and philosophers. Their role in society is that of a Guru or a teacher. They were traditionally spiritual leaders and were not expected to perform physical labor. Society looked up to them and looked after them. They have a high development of spiritual and mental ability.

Kshatriya or Warriors - They form the leaders and the ruling class who are powerful people and master of strategy and battle. They were traditionally the Kings and protectors of society. They are considered very courageous and are decisive in their actions.

Vaishya or Merchants/Business people - They belong to the professional or business class of people who perform all the useful and economic functions of society. They are skilled in different crafts and professions, signifying tremendous abilities.

Shudra or Laborers/Service people – They belong to the normal hard-working class who had a tremendous sense of service to society. Majority of the work in society fell upon them; hence they also have an inherent sense of responsibility.

Weightage

Maximum point 1

Minimum point 0

Actual Points Scored: 1

The Man belongs to the Brahman ( Priest ) category

The Woman belongs to the Brahman ( Priest ) category

Prediction

In this test for Varna compatibility, both partners are of Brahman Varna. They are both endowed with intelligence and possess well-developed mental faculties. In their relationship, they will love, respect and co-operate with each other. Persons belonging to same Varna have complete mental harmony and compatibility and have a similar approach to handling any situation. Hence, the compatibility between their egos will be an excellent one.

The Second Test:

Power compatibility (Vasya)

This test has a maximum value of 2 points and shows the power equation between the partners. It also reflects who will be the more dominant partner in the relationship.

For the purposes of this test, Vedic principles again divide personalities into 5 different categories reflecting the difference in power status. These are classified by symbol of different living creatures. The test scores the compatibility between these classifications and the inherent or natural balance of power. Once again, if a woman has a higher power status, the score will be low. The classifications are as follows:

Manav or Human. Humans are normally individualistic, they like to have control, have their own opinions and the power to discriminate.

Vanchar or Creature of the Jungle. Jungle creatures that are powerful and those that are higher in the food chain like Tigers, and Lions, etc. fall into this category.

Chatuspad or Four-Legged Creature. Animals that are less powerful like deer and goat and sheep fall in this category.

Jalchar or Creature of Water. Once again they have their own power and their own sphere of influence.

Keet or Insect. They are essential to any ecological balance and exert a quiet power that is essential for survival. Thus, they have their own strengths and area of influence.

Weightage

Maximum point 2

Minimum point 0

Actual Points Scored: 1

The Man belongs to the Jalchar ( Creature of Water ) category

The Woman belongs to the Keet ( Insect ) category

Prediction

She belongs to the Jalchar (aquatic) classification while she belongs to the Keet (insect) classification. It is natural that Jalchar and Keet have their independent views and domains. It is probable that both may give preference to their individual views and thoughts. They may also try to exert their individual supremacy. Therefore, this test indicates average results.

The Third Test:

Birth Star Compatibility (Tara)

This test has a maximum value of 3 points and indicates the health, well-being and longevity of the partners after marriage. This test reflects if marriage is favorable or unfavorable in promoting longevity and health of each partner.

For purposes of this test, the inter-relationship of the birth stars (Tara) are looked at and compared. Vedic Astrology rates the inter-relationship as being naturally auspicious or inauspicious. This test rates the relationship of the birth stars as reflected in each partner's natal chart. There are 9 categories of birth stars—Janama, Sampat, Vipata, Kshema, Pratyari, Sadhaka, Vadha, Mitra and Ati-mitra. The counting is done from Her Birth Star to that of His and from His Birth Star to that of Her's. If by dividing each of them by the other, the remainder comes to 3, 5, 7 then the Tara is inauspicious. If the remainder comes to 1, 2, 4, 6, 8, 0 then it is auspicious. The points are determined according to the auspicious and inauspicious Birth Stars of both the partners.

Weightage

Maximum point 3

Actual Points Scored: 3

Prediction

The relationship between these two birth stars is excellent. This indicates that peace, prosperity and financial strength are likely to be excellent. In addition, this combination is

The Fourth Test:
Physical and sexual compatibility (Yoni)

This test has a maximum value of 4 points and shows sexual and biological compatibility, as well as mutual love and sexual inclinations of the partners reflecting attraction, love and sexual joy.

For the purposes of this test, the relationship between the “Nakshatra” in the two natal charts are compared and each Nakshatra is given the characteristic of an animal. Once again, animals have either a natural affinity, or are neutral or enemies to each other. The maximum score of 4 is obtained in this test when Yoni or the animal character personified is the same for both Man and Woman. The minimum score of 0 is obtained in this test when the Yoni. or the animal characteristics personified, of Man and Woman are natural enemies. For example, if the Yonis of the couple belong to Serpent and Mongoose category, the score will be zero in this test.

The 14 animal characteristics that are endowed on the personalities are as follows:

- Ashwa* or Horse
- Gaja* or Elephant
- Mesha* or Ram

sexual satisfaction, they would also try to satisfy their partner.. Hence this test indicates favorable results.

The Fifth Test:
Planetary Harmony (Grahamaitri)

This test has a maximum value of 5 points. It shows progeny prospects, mental qualities and mutual affection between the partners. It also shows one's outlook, objective, and intellectual level as well as spiritual plane of existence. It reflects the fundamental difference in daily behavior, attitude and norm by which the man and woman relate to each other. For the purposes of this test, the relationship between the different planetary lords of the Moon Sign in each partner's natal chart is compared. Vedic Astrology attributes the planets either to be natural friends, or enemies or neutral to each other.

The 7 planets are as follows:

Surya or Sun
Chandra or Moon
Mangal or Mars
Budh or Mercury
Guru or Jupiter
Shukra or Venus
Shani or Saturn

Weightage
Maximum point	5
Minimum point	0
Actual Points Scored: 5

The Man belongs to the Guru ( Jupiter ) category
The Woman belongs to the Mangal ( Mars ) category

Prediction

The lords of the two Moon signs of the couple are extremely friendly to each other. It indicates that intellectual, behavioral, ideological and mental compatibility between them is likely to be of a high level and both would be deeply attached to each other. Their life styles and professional career may have similar directions. Both would assist and support each other in almost every aspect. Hence this test indicates excellent results.

The Sixth Test:
Compatibility of nature (Gana)

This test has a maximum value of 6 and shows the nature of the two different individuals at a mundane level, and indicates the compatibility of temperament and mutual daily behavior, for happiness and prosperity in their lives.

For purposes of this test, by categorizing persons into 3 separate classes, the inherent spiritual and materialistic values of the two persons are compared and rated for compatibility. Once again, if the woman were to score higher points spiritually, the scores will be low.

They are as follows:

Devata or Godly – This represents a person who is more spiritual than materialistic.

Manushya or Mortal – This indicates a person who has an even balance between the spiritual and the materialistic.

Rakshasa or Demon – This represents a person who is more materialistic than spiritual

This is an important test with high values. The maximum point of 6 is obtained when both partners belong to the same 'Gana'. This signifies an identical outlook towards life. The scores in this test can be 6, 5, 1 or 0. The minimum score of 0 is obtained when either partner belongs to a "Demon" category. However, if both were to belong to the Demon category, the score would be high. Marriage or a long-term relationship between inimical Ganas brings quarrels, disharmony, separation and divorce.

The Seventh Test:

Compatibility between Zodiac Moon signs (Bhakut)

This test has a maximum value of 7 and is a crucial test to check overall prosperity in the growth of family, family welfare and economic prosperity after marriage.

For purposes of this test, the compatibility between the Zodiac Moon Signs are compared by checking the angles created by these signs in the two different charts.

The Man belongs to the Meen ( Pisces ) category
The Woman belongs to the Brischik ( Scorpio ) category

Prediction

Both these Moon signs create a 9/5 axis between them. This indicates that consequent to their establishing a relationship, support and assistance from each other may be negligible and this may also be an obstacle to progeny bliss. Hence this test does not indicate favorable results.

The Eighth Test:

Compatibility between Life forces (Nadi)

This test that has the highest value of 8 shows the pulse and nervous energy indicating the physiological and heredity factor. This test also measures the genetic compatibility between the couple to produce healthy progeny after marriage.

Please consider that in ancient Vedic times, the main purpose of marriage was to produce healthy children and to continue the family lineage. In this age of modern science and technology, where the most advanced medical facilities are available, this score should be considered in light of this factor. In addition, in those relationships where birth of children is not required, this score can be completely discarded from the overall points and the points scored.

For purposes of this test, life forces are categorized as follows:

Adi or Beginning
Madhya or Middle
Aanta or End

Weightage

Maximum point	8

Actual Points Scored:	0

The Man belongs to the Madhya ( Middle ) category
The Woman belongs to the Madhya ( Middle ) category

Prediction

Similarity between the nadis is considered to be detrimental for progeny bliss and not favorable for enjoying a cordial relationship. Enjoyment of romance and progress in life may also be adversely affected. Hence the result of this test does not indicate favorable results.

Conclusion

Maximum Score Possible = 36

Total Points Scored = 18

CONCLUSION OF KUNDALI MILAPAK:

You will observe that both your charts have scored a total score of 18, which is at least higher than the minimum score required to recommend marriage with each other. However, what is a matter of concern that both your charts have scored no points in crucial 7th test called “Bhakut Test” which has the second highest score among all the 8 tests. This test in specific terms checks, whether there will be increase in prosperity and material well being in your day to day life post marriage than what it was or how you felt before marriage. In this context , it will not be out of place to mention that both of you may have a very high expectation about the same which may not be realistic. Also as explained in your Ascendant prediction, both of you being Virgo, have this great need of everything being perfect specially when it comes to management of joint finances in your day to day life. Both of you may not agree on the ways and means how the joint finance will be managed. Both of you are used to managing your finance independently. Hence I will advice you that both of you should have free and frank discussion on what will constitute as joint expenditure as well as who will share what expenses. You should also have clear understanding on your individual expenses which each one of you will be free to spend without referring to each other.

The Mars compatibility and Kujadosha between your respective charts:

Mangalik chart and Non Mangalik chart is a term most familiar in India. It is also called “Kujadosha” between the charts.

Kujadosha or Mars affliction is an astrological condition which negatively affects a person's married life and domestic harmony. It occurs when Mars is in the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th or 12th house, unless it is posited in a sign designated as an exception for that particular house.

These exceptions are as follows:

Mars in first house, unless posited in Aries. Mars in the 4th house, unless posited in Scorpio. Mars in 7th house, unless posited in Capricorn or Pisces. Mars in 8th house, unless posited in Cancer. Mars in 12th house, unless posited in Sagittarius.

For a detail analysis, position of Mars must be checked in the same manner not only in Natal (Lagna) chart, but also in Moon-Sign (Rashi) chart and also in Navamsa (9th harmonic chart).

The effect of Kujadosha is to cause a person to be somewhat victimized in his/her marriage. This can of course occur in any number of ways, but ultimately one is likely to end up divorced and generally through no obvious fault of one's own. The person will also have to endure hardships in the marriage generated by the spouse.

The way out of this problem is for a person with Kujadosha to marry another who also has it. A person with Kujadosha does not have the nature to victimize his spouse, and therefore if both partners have the condition, its effect is neutralized. This is the usual procedure in cases of arranged marriage in India where horoscopes of the couple are matched before the go ahead is taken.

However, the problem does not really get fully solved, even if these precautions are taken while deciding about a bride/ groom.

The mechanics of Kujadosha are such that it causes a person to be attracted to a partner who by his/her very nature cannot blend or function compatibly for any great length of time with that person who does not have Kujadosha in his/her chart. Therefore one is quite simply at the mercy of his/her fate and the marriage may eventually come to an end.

However the most significant problem is a person with Kujadosha will not feel much physical attraction or any special chemistry for another who also has Kujadosha in his/her chart. In such cases the marriage may be saved but excitement and passion may soon vanish within a few years of Life Together.

XYZ's Chart:

In his natal (Lagna/Ascendant) chart, Mars is placed in 3rd house in its own sign Scorpio. From here, Mars does not aspect his 7th house. He has no Kujadosha in his Ascendant chart.

In his Moon-sign (Rashi) chart, Mars is placed in his 9th house, the house of destiny and does not aspect his 7th house. He has no Kujadosha in his Rashi chart.

In his 9th harmonic (Navamsa) chart, Mars is placed in his 10th house, the house of profession and does not aspect his 7th house. ### The role of Venus in respective charts:

Venus is the planet for love and passion in our chart, both emotional love as well as physical passion. Venus in the chart indicates the way we will express or project our love to our partner as well as the way we would like to receive love from our partner in a relationship. A good and harmonious Venus between the charts will go a long way to build a strong emotional and physical bonding between the couple which in turn can sustain and nurture the relationship over a long period of time.

1) THE MEANING OF LOVE IN YOUR LIFE

XYZ's CHART:

Love for you is something that should be exciting and rapturous, yet at the same time have meaning and even some deeply moral or religious quality about it. Basically you want to satisfy equally both your body and your soul or mind, and you will pursue such an objective enthusiastically and uninhibitedly. Troubles arise when the lusts or needs of your body leave the idealism of your mind behind, or vice versa, either being mere fancy.

ABC's CHART:

Love for you is something that has to happen quickly, like at first sight, almost as if you are taken by storm. There also has to be childlike, spontaneous quality to it that never settles down into an 'adult' rut of habit and predictability; love has to make something happen. The dark side to your particularly bright love nature is that you can be self-centred, impetuous and emotionally immature, causing you to give in to mere fancy.

2) MUTUAL RESPECT AND TRUST FOR EACH OTHER

XYZ's CHART

How you gain respect-

- A creed of positive thinking which can open up possibilities for other that they hitherto had not noticed or entertained.

How you lose respect-

- Any facet of your personality which you mistakenly believe is a good advertisement for yourself.
- A careless, outspoken and laid back attitude, which is really just a denial of your own doubts and sensitivity.
- Your conviction that you know the truth, have the technology, designed the T-shirt.

ABC' CHART

How you gain respect-

- An aura of emotional understanding that transcends other's defences and reaches their heart.
- An emanation of peace and wistful charm that enchants, soothes and heals other.
- An air of mystery and imagination that relieves other from the mundanities of life.

How you lose respect-

- Your openness to the feelings within and around you because you do not know what else to do with them.
- A desire to seek oblivion in drugs, alcohol , etc. rather than seeking honestly / spiritually.
- Your passionate conviction that your impressions are the right ones, even when you find them unhelpful or contradictory.

The status of 7th house, the house of marriage in respective charts:

7th house is the house of marriage in our chart. 7th house per se indicates the status of your marital life, irrespective of the partner with whom you are married to.

XYZ's Chart:

His 7th house, the house of relationship and marriage is Pisces which is ruled by Jupiter. 7th house receives strong aspects from both Pluto and Uranus from the Ascendant.

The strength of his 7th house is very weak in his chart mainly because lord of 7th house, Jupiter is combust and very weak in his chart and is not effective enough. I will advice astrological remedy for Jupiter at the end of this report to make it more effective. However the 11th lord Moon is located in his 7th house, which signifies that there may be material gain as well as his desires for partnership will get fulfilled after his marriage. The weak score of 7th house indicates that there will be ups and downs in his day to day marital life.

ABC's Chart:

Her 7th house is also Pisces which is ruled by Jupiter. However Jupiter is quite strong and powerful in her chart. Jupiter is also natural signifier of husband in a woman's chart. The strength of her 7th house is quite good in her chart. However Ketu (Moon's south node) and 12th lord Sun is also located in her 7th house. Both these planets will be extremely challenging and may cause constant ups and downs in her day to day marital life.

The conclusion is that 7th house in both charts do not indicate a smooth and blissful marital life for either of them.

Based on above analysis, I have no hesitation in recommending marriage to each other as per your plan. Also Lord of 7th house, Jupiter in your respective charts are mutually aspecting each other between your two charts. This signifies that both of you are destined to get married to each other because of your past life connections also. However I will advice you to get married to each other on or before 6th August, 2010, when Jupiter in transit will become retrograde. If this is not possible for some reasons, then both of you should get married between 1st January, 2011 and 3rd May 2011, when Jupiter will become direct in transit and will still transit through your respective 7th house in your chart.
