Introduction

The meaning of transit relates to the position of planet. It is the position of the planet in the solar system and the earth at a given moment or time. The horoscope of a person is nothing but the exact location of the planets as per the exact birth details of the person. Hence transits play a very significant role at the time of the birth of the person as well as all through life. It has been given its due importance in all genres of astrology.

Transit is viewed or calculated from the Moon sign or the Rashi and Ascendant or the Lagna. Sometimes the two give, contradictory or confusing indications. This does not mean that one will happen and the other will not. It is simply that the intensity of one will be less than the other, and this will depend on other astrological factors like cohabitation with other planets, aspect or affliction in effect where the planet is in transit.

In this report we will consider the three major transit positions of Saturn, Jupiter and Rahu-Ketu. Saturn would be transiting in the sign Leo from 1st October 2007 to 30th September 2008. Jupiter would be transiting in the sign Scorpio from 1st October 2007 to 22nd November 2007. It would be transiting through the sign Sagittarius from 23rd November 2007 to 30th September 2008. Rahu-Ketu would be transiting in Aquarius-Leo from 1st October 2007 to 6th May 2008. They would be transiting through Capricorn- Cancer from 7th May to 30th September 2008.

Effect of Saturn's transit by your Ascendant

Your Ascendant is Aquarius and Saturn would be transiting through the sign Leo till 31st August 2008. This is the seventh house in your birth chart. The Seventh House is the house of Spouse, partnerships, alliances, marital life etc. It also represents litigation, open enmity and success in negotiation. In the body it represents the kidneys. Since, Saturn is transiting in your 7th house, you may become more inclined towards taking responsibility for your love life. Your marriage or basic love relationship is the most important arena for your growth during this two and a half years time span. You may feel a profound sense of responsibility towards your partner at this time.

The individuals involved in extra marital affairs must now be found out. When Saturn transits the seventh house, it influences the ninth, first and fourth house. June 2008 would be advantageous for enjoying personal life, undue favours and unexpected gains. The months of April-May 2008 would be favourable for increasing income and fulfilling most of your desires.

Effect of Rahu-Ketu's transit by your Ascendant

Rahu would be transiting through the sign Aquarius i.e. the first house in your Birth chart till 6th May 2008. The First House is known as the House of Self. It represents the inner self (the Soul), and the outer self (the Body). It indicates the way we project ourselves--our behavior and attitude to the external world, as well as our physical attributes. It also signifies our life in general. In the body it signifies the head and face.

The positive energy of Rahu will make you ambitious and self-confident during this time frame. You may start feeling more assertive and motivated. Your efforts may be projected in the direction of gaining worldly success. It is also the house of victory over enemies. So, you may rise above your competitors or opponents. Rahu is badly placed in your natal horoscope. Therefore you may suffer on account of health. You may start experiencing insatiable desire for mundane pleasures and become more interested in hoarding money. You must seek the opportunities and endeavors for further progress, but it is also important that you must chalk out all minute details and shortcomings, so that it may not turn out to be a failure later.

Rahu would enter in the sign Capricorn i.e. the twelfth house in your Birth chart on 7th May 2008 and would remain there till 30th September 2008. The Twelfth House is known as the house of expenditure or the house of detachment. It represents our Material Expenditure and Losses. It also represents our karmic and spiritual debts in this life. It is the house of Salvation or Moksha. The twelfth house also represents our foreign connections and is also the house of secret pleasures and sex. In the body, it represents the feet.

The impact of Rahu may inspire you to live away from home due to sudden developments in life during this time frame. Since, you may not feel satisfied with worldly achievements, you may spend money to achieve the success and may handover your money to the wrong person. In this case, your money may get wasted or someone may take advantage of you in the money matters. In case you see that these negative tendencies are overpowering you, then you must immediately make efforts to pull yourself out from such negative vibes.

In general it represents ancestry, heritage, our roots with our birthplace. In the body it represents the breasts and the digestive system.

Ketu is transiting through your 4th house, which signifies personal life, property and conveyance. Ketu is the karaka of accident and injury. You must safeguard yourself from any such mishappening if it is badly placed in the natal horoscope. In rare cases, when Ketu is afflicted, a person may leave the family and materialistic bondages in pursuit of attainment of moksha. Since, this house also signifies the mother, there may be danger to your mother. Please take proper care of your mother's health if she is not keeping well. You must check out for any conflicts related to immovable assets, such as land and property. In case there is any tension prevailing over the matters related to land, then it may turn out to be a dispute during this transit. Problems in relation to your mode of conveyance such as car may also crop up.

Ketu would enter in the sign Cancer on 7th May 2008 and remain there till 30th September 2008. The sign Cancer is the third house in your Moon chart. The Third House represents the inputs and their strength for our Material Progress. Thus, it is the house of Communication (our power of speech, our courage, determination and confidence), and the way we process and analyze events and experiences on an intellectual plane. It also describes our siblings, immediate neighbors or extended family and friends. In the body it represents the hands, shoulders and lungs.

The transit of Ketu in the third house is termed as an auspicious time frame. You may succeed in your endeavors and you may even be successful in winning the confidence of your opponents. You may feel very energetic and make efforts for effective communication. You may take interest in gaining and assimilating new information. You may be successful in taking out the piece of information, which may not be known to others. You may be the first person to disclose to such information by the mode of your writing or publication. Detectives may give an outstanding performance in their profession. Rise in earnings is well indicated. You may like to lead the life of royal touch and dignity.

Conjunction or Aspect of Rahu-Ketu with Natal Planets

You need to work hard, pay attention towards personal life and remain careful regarding your stay in foreign during October 2007. You should pay attention towards your health during December 2007. It would be further beneficial to take significant decisions carefully during March-April 2008. However you should avoid indulging in confrontations during June and September 2008.

Conclusion

(With respect to Tri Transit, over all Dasha & conjunction if any)

In Vedic Astrology sages believed that a human can live a contented and blissful life when born under harmonious conditions of the planets. However when planets in transit are not in a favorable mode, the complete potential of his or her horoscope cannot be enjoyed. There are bound to be delays, disappointments and often sorrow. So in effect a person born with favorable connections also has to face the effects of the planets according to his horoscope at a given point of time. The same is also applicable in the reverse- the positive impact of the transiting planet will not be felt to its full potential unless the natal horoscope is strong, unaffiliated and unblemished.

Regarding your queries, the planets that signify husband and marital life are well placed as well as in strong strength in your birth chart. The good placement and strength of these planets are favourable for enjoying a happy marital life with a suitable life partner. However the natal weakness of the planets representing marital life, spouse and marital bonding are likely to result in some sort of problems in enjoying marital bliss of a high order in your case. These might be due to any reason.

In order to overcome the above-mentioned weaknesses you should avoid cropping up differences with your husband. Needless to say a bit of patient and flexible approach on your part would be favourable for making your marital life to be more blissful and colorful. This would also be helpful in reviving your broken friendly relationships. However this is impossible to analyse the problems in professional career of your husband through your birth chart.

Astrological Remedy

You should strengthen the planet Sun by wearing a Ruby weighing 4 to 6 carats in potency. It must be mounted on a gold ring and worn on the ring finger of your right hand. The gem must be put on first on a Sunday morning, preferably when the Moon is waxing.

May God grant you peace, prosperity and happiness in life!
