INTRODUCTION

Varsha Phal report covers a period of 1 year in a person's life. This 1-year period starts from the person's birthday on a particular year, and the period ends on his next birthday. The Varsha Phal report is most effective and most accurate predictive tool to analyze the period between one birthday to the next birthday.

Uniqueness of Varsha Phal report

Casting of Varsha Phal Chart:

The principle of casting a Varshaphal chart is the same as that of a natal horoscope chart except for the input birth details. The date of birth and time of birth are different in this chart, though the place of birth will remain the same as the place where the person is actually born irrespective of the place where the person is actually residing during his present birthday. This is an important difference with western astrology, where similar report for annual horoscopy called "Solar Return report" or Birthday report", the place of birth is determined by the actual place where the person is residing at the time of his/her this year's birthday.

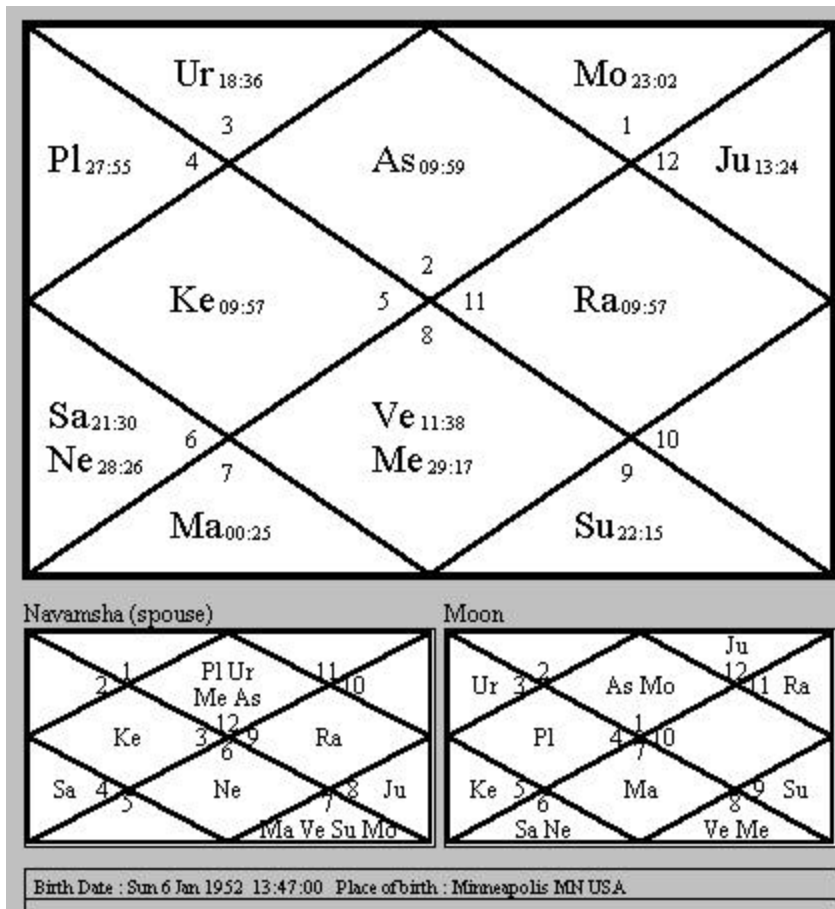

The Date and Time of birth in Varsha Phal Chart:

This is based on the actual Solar Return moment this year, which is called the birthday moment for this year. The birthday moment is defined, as the exact moment during this year when Sun will return to its exact degrees in the Zodiac sign, as it was in the natal chart. Since Sun does not move at a constant speed, every year, this actual birthday moment shifts from the actual time of birth, which was considered in the natal chart. It may even happen the date of birth may also change during a particular birthday year in life. It can be one day before or one day after also, as the birthday moment is ahead of midnight on the date of birth in natal chart or the birthday moment during one birthday year falls before midnight on the natal chart date of birth. Usually the date of birth will remain the same.

Overall Assessment of the year based on Muntha and Muntha Lord

The concept of Progressed Ascendant or Muntha in Varsha Phal chart.

This is another unique concept in Varsha Phal chart. The birth ascendant in natal chart is supposed to move or progress to the next Zodiac sign every year from the natal zodiac sign. This is called Progressed Ascendant in Western astrology, and “Muntha” in Varsha Phal. Muntha plays a crucial role in the analysis of Varsha Phal chart, as Birth ascendant or “Janma Lagna” plays a crucial role in analysis of natal chart.

It is important to remember that the Varsha Phal chart will also have an ascendant like the natal chart based on the exact eastern horizon in our natal birthplace at the time of exact solar return moment on this year’s birthday. The Muntha actually forms the link between Varsha Phal chart and the Natal chart. In this way the Varsha Phal chart analysis synthesizes the impact of natal chart for this year in our life.

The Muntha is the most significant point in the Varsha Phal chart. It is located in Lagna at the time of birth. Each year the Muntha progresses by one zodiac sign (Rashi). Thus, when the second year of life begins, the Muntha has progressed in the sign falling in the second house from the birth ascendant and so on. This is why Muntha is called the “Progressed Ascendant”.

Effect of Muntha in House

In this year’s Varshaphal (Annual) Chart, the Muntha is placed in the 6th house of the Annual Chart. 6th house signifies disease and obstacles. Disease in broad sense means “Disturbance of Ease” of either body or mind. When it is body, it means physical illness and when it is mind, it means mental stress anguish and frustration.

This will create restlessness and excitement in the mind.

Health could cause concern.

This could make you irritable and cause frequent headaches.

There may be fear from worthless enemies.

You may be tempted towards sinful deeds which will prick your conscience later.

This could cause some carelessness in work leading to tensions.

Unnecessary quarrels may take place.

Loss due to theft is possible.

Effect of Muntha in Zodiac sign

Muntha is placed in Capricorn, which is ruled by Saturn. When Saturn is the lord of Muntha, it signifies the following:

This could cause some obstructions in your endeavor and so you should plan well in advance and put in double your efforts. You should prepare your arguments and view points thoroughly, before placing them.

Health could cause concern.

You may get injury from weapons and skin eruptions could cause suffering.

There could be some loss due to fire or theft.

Troubles in traveling or transfers to unfavorable places could happen.

This may be generally the end result, but the process through which you will achieve this result will largely depend on the house in which the lord is located in the annual chart.

Effect of Lord of Muntha

Lord of Muntha is located in 1st house, in the annual chart. 1st house indicates all types of fortunes and good luck.

This brings in a rise in fortune.

You will have physical comforts and mental bliss.

Fortunes will increase.

You will receive good co-operation from friends.

Respect and honor will be achieved.

Results of the year lord (Varshesha)

The “Year” lord in Varsha Phal chart:

The year lord of Varsha Phal chart has special significance in analysis of the particular birthday year. The planet, which is most powerful among the 5 contestants (Panchadhikari) in the Varsha Phal chart, is considered the Year Lord.

They are the following:

- a) Muntha Lord
- b) Lord of Ascendant in Natal chart
- c) Lord of Ascendant in Varsha Phal chart
- d) Trirashi Lord (Every zodiac sign will have a lord which is different from the lord of each sign that we assume in natal chart analysis)
- e) Dinratri lord (This will be either Sun or Moon depending on birthday moment is during day or during night)

Saturn is the Year Lord in your Annual Chart. Saturn is extremely powerful in your Annual Chart.

Saturn being of very good strength signifies:

Land and property may increase this year.

There will be victory in disputes.

Family will gain prestige.

Servants and sub-ordinates will be beneficial.

Business will show improvement.

Results of Tajik Yogas

Aspects and Yogas: The aspects in Varsha Phal system are based on Tajika aspects, which are more similar to western aspects, than standard Vedic aspects in natal horoscope. There are two important aspects of Itthasala and Esharpha, (Arabic words) and akin to concepts of Applying aspects and Separating aspects in Western astrology. Most of the “Yogas” in Varsha Phal chart are based on these two aspects.

The following important Yogas have been formed in Varsha Phal chart and their effects:

Itthasala Yoga:

This is a beneficial Yoga formed by the aspect of Sun and Jupiter. This indicates success in many of your efforts.

Manua Yoga:

This is an inauspicious Yoga. This could cause some rift and strife with your colleagues or superiors.

Esharpha Yoga:

This indicates that some deals could have got stuck up at the last moment and they will be settled eventually.

Rudda Yoga:

This indicates success in your efforts and victories over enemies but after an initial period of some struggles.

Varsha Phal Predictions

(As per Varsha Phal Dasha and Natal chart Vimshottari Dasha)

Natal Chart Dasha:

You are now passing through the main period of Jupiter for 16 years from June 15, 1998 till June 15, 2014. On the whole this could be termed a mixed period. Jupiter being lord of the 11th house and positioned in the 11th house will confer good all round benefits and help you to fulfill quite a few of your ambitions. However Jupiter being lord of the 8th house could cause anxieties and worries due to health, career and other factors. Within this time frame you are now passing through the sub-period of Jupiter-Venus till December 27, 2008. This is a favorable sub-period. Venus being your ascendant lord and positioned in the 7th house will confer good professional benefits.

However in your chart the 3rd Lord Moon is positioned in the 12th house. This could cause sudden wavering of mind or fickle mindedness. This could lead to sudden moods of depression and so you should try to relax and not worry too much over trifles as this could cause concern due to health at a later stage in life.

However in natal chart Dasha, the full period of Dasha system is 120 years, but in Mudda Dasha, the full period is 1 year that is from this birthday to next birthday.
