The overall areas of compatibility between your two horoscopes

COMPATIBILITY ANALYSIS FROM DIFFERENT ASPECTS (8-FOLD TESTS)

The First Test:

Mental Compatibility (Varna)

This test has a maximum value of 1 point and shows the basic potential of a person and the person's inherent skills and abilities. This also includes the personal egos of the partners and compatibility between their egos. A partnership in which the woman has higher intellectual and spiritual qualities will score low in this test.

For purposes of this test, personalities are divided into four classes to indicate potential and inherent abilities. They are as follows:

Brahmin or Priests - They are the intellectuals and philosophers. Their role in society is that of a Guru or a teacher. They were traditionally spiritual leaders and were not expected to perform physical labor. Society looked up to them and looked after them. They have a high development of spiritual and mental ability.

Kshatriya or Warriors - They form the leaders and the ruling class who are powerful people and master of strategy and battle. They were traditionally the Kings and protectors of society. They are considered very courageous and are decisive in their actions.

Vaishya or Merchants/Business people - They belong to the professional or business class of people who perform all the useful and economic functions of society. They are skilled in different crafts and professions, signifying tremendous abilities.

Shudra or Laborers/Service people – They belong to the normal hard-working class who had a tremendous sense of service to society. Majority of the work in society fell upon them; hence they also have an inherent sense of responsibility.

Weightage

Maximum point	1
Actual Points Scored:	1

The Man belongs to the Shudra ( Labor ) category
The Woman belongs to the Shudra ( Laborer ) category

Prediction

Both the partners are of Shudra Varna. Both will have a sense of duty, responsibility, and service and will have mutual trust and faith. This is a clear indication of similarity of intellect and views and they will have good emotional adjustment. They will co-operate fully and will love and respect each other. Hence there will be an excellent mental compatibility between them.

The Second Test: Power compatibility (Vasya)

This test has a maximum value of 2 points and shows the power equation between the partners. It also reflects who will be the more dominant partner in the relationship.

For the purposes of this test, Vedic principles again divide personalities into 5 different categories reflecting the difference in power status. These are classified by symbol of different living creatures. The test scores the compatibility between these classifications and the inherent or natural balance of power. Once again, if a woman has a higher power status, the score will be low. The classifications are as follows:

Manav or Human. Humans are normally individualistic, they like to have control, have their own opinions and the power to discriminate.

Vanchar or Creature of the Jungle. Jungle creatures that are powerful and those that are higher in the food chain like Tigers, and Lions, etc. fall into this category.

Chatuspad or Four-Legged Creature. Animals that are less powerful like deer and goat and sheep fall in this category.

Jalchar or Creature of Water. Once again they have their own power and their own sphere of influence.

Keet or Insect. They are essential to any ecological balance and exert a quiet power that is essential for survival. Thus, they have their own strengths and area of influence.

Weightage

Maximum point 2

Minimum point 0

Actual Points Scored: 2

The Man belongs to the Manav ( Human ) category

The Woman belongs to the Manav ( Human ) category

Prediction

Both partners belong to the Manav (human) classification. While human beings are individualistic and each has their own independent thinking, they are also likely to respect each other's views and emotions. Since both belong to the same classification, the level of love and support between them are of high order. Both are likely to adjust and be flexible. Hence this test indicates excellent results.

The Third Test:

Birth Star Compatibility (Tara)

This test has a maximum value of 3 points and indicates the health, well-being and longevity of the partners after marriage. This test reflects if marriage is favourable or unfavourable in promoting longevity and health of each partner.

For purposes of this test, the inter-relationship of the birth stars (Tara) are looked at and compared. Vedic Astrology rates the inter-relationship as being naturally auspicious or inauspicious. This test rates the relationship of the birth stars as reflected in each partner's natal chart. There are 9 categories of birth stars—Janama, Sampat, Vipata, Kshema, Pratyari, Sadhaka, Vadha, Mitra and Ati-mitra. The counting is done from Her Birth Star to that of His and from His Birth Star to that of Her's. If by dividing each of them by the other, the remainder comes to 3, 5, 7 then the Tara is inauspicious. If the remainder comes to 1, 2, 4, 6 8, 0 then it is auspicious. The points are determined according to the auspicious and inauspicious Birth Stars of both the partners.

Weightage

Maximum point 3

Minimum point 0

Actual Points Scored: 1.5

Prediction

The relationship between these two birth stars is moderate. This indicates that peace, prosperity and financial strength is likely to be of an average level. In addition, this is also considered to be moderately favourable for birth of progeny and emotional attachment between the partners. An average result.

The Fourth Test: Physical and sexual compatibility (Yoni)

This test has a maximum value of 4 points and shows sexual and biological compatibility, as well as mutual love and sexual inclinations of the partners reflecting attraction, love and sexual joy.

For the purposes of this test, the relationship between the “Nakshatra” in the two natal charts are compared and each Nakshatra is given the characteristic of an animal. Once again, animals have either a natural affinity, or are neutral or enemies to each other. The maximum score of 4 is obtained in this test when Yoni or the animal character personified is the same for both Man and Woman. The minimum score of 0 is obtained in this test when the Yoni. or the animal characteristics personified, of Man and Woman are natural enemies. For example, if the Yonis of the couple belong to Serpent and Mongoose category, the score will be zero in this test.

The 14 animal characteristics that are endowed on the personalities are as follows:

Gaja or Elephant
Mesha or Ram

The Man belongs to the Sarpa ( Serpent ) category

The Woman belongs to the Yagrah ( Tiger ) category

Prediction

These species are neither friendly nor hostile towards each other - they are indifferent. This indicates that they are likely to give preference to their individual views and thoughts. In almost every aspect of life, they are likely to care about their individual joys and sorrows and ideological state of mind. As far as sexual satisfaction is concerned, they would be interested in their respective sexual satisfaction. In such a situation, occasional tensions in the relationship cannot be ruled out. Both should try to maintain a harmonious attitude. Hence this test indicates average results.

The Fifth Test:

Planetary Harmony (Grahamaitri)

This test has a maximum value of 5 points. It shows progeny prospects, mental qualities and mutual affection between the partners. It also shows one's outlook, objective, and intellectual level as well as spiritual plane of existence. It reflects the fundamental difference in daily behavior, attitude and norm by which the man and woman relate to each other. For the purposes of this test, the relationship between the different planetary lords of the Moon Sign in each partner's natal chart is compared. Vedic Astrology attributes the planets either to be natural friends, or enemies or neutral to each other.

The 7 planets are as follows:

Surya or Sun

Chandra or Moon

Their life styles and professional career may have similar directions. Both would assist and support each other in almost every aspect. Hence this test indicates excellent results.

The Sixth Test: Compatibility of nature (Gana)

This test has a maximum value of 6 and shows the nature of the two different individuals at a mundane level, and indicates the compatibility of temperament and mutual daily behavior, for happiness and prosperity in their lives.

For purposes of this test, by categorizing persons into 3 separate classes, the inherent spiritual and materialistic values of the two persons are compared and rated for compatibility. Once again, if the woman were to score higher points spiritually, the scores will be low.

They are as follows:

Devata or Godly – This represents a person who is more spiritual than materialistic.

Manushya or Mortal – This indicates a person who has an even balance between the spiritual and the materialistic.

Rakshasa or Demon – This represents a person who is more materialistic than spiritual

This is an important test with high values. The maximum point of 6 is obtained when both partners belong to the same 'Gana'. This signifies an identical outlook towards life. The scores in this test can be 6, 5, 1 or 0. The minimum score of 0 is obtained when either partner belongs to a "Demon" category. However, if both were to belong to the Demon category, the score would be high. Marriage or a long-term relationship between inimical Ganas brings quarrels, disharmony, separation and divorce.

Weightage

Maximum point 6

Minimum point 0

Actual Points Scored: 0

The Man belongs to the Deva ( God ) category

The Woman belongs to the Rakshasa ( Demon ) category

Since times immemorial, there has been hostility and tensions between Gods and demons. It indicates that both are likely to be endowed with diverse views and mentality. Emotional, mental and ideological compatibility between them is likely to be negligible. Both may try to prove their individual supremacy and in such a situation, clash of interests and egos is likely to be the most probable fallout. Both would try their level best to establish their individual supremacy. In both day-to-day matters as well as serious issues, they are likely to have tensions and differences. Hence this test does not indicate favourable results.

The Seventh Test: Compatibility between Zodiac Moon signs (Bhakut)

This test has a maximum value of 7 and is a crucial test to check overall prosperity in the growth of family, family welfare and economic prosperity after marriage.

Singha or Leo

The Eighth Test: Compatibility between Life forces (Nadi)

This test that has the highest value of 8 shows the pulse and nervous energy indicating the physiological and heredity factor. This test also measures the genetic compatibility between the couple to produce healthy progeny after marriage.

Please consider that in ancient Vedic times, the main purpose of marriage was to produce healthy children and to continue the family lineage. In this age of modern science and technology, where the most advanced medical facilities are available, this score should be considered in light of this factor. In addition, in those relationships where birth of children is not required, this score can be completely discarded from the overall points and the points scored.

For purposes of this test, life forces are categorized as follows:

Adi or Beginning

Madhya or Middle

Aanta or End

Weightage

The Woman belongs to the Antya ( End ) category

Prediction

Dissimilarity between the nadis is considered to be favourable for marital bliss and better prospects of progeny. This is also considered to be favourable for achieving peace and prosperity in life. Enjoyment of romance is also likely to be of a high order. Hence this test indicates excellent results.

Conclusion

Maximum Score Possible = 36

Total Points Scored = 19.5

Prospects of childbirth and progeny happiness between the couple

According to the planetary positions related to the house of children in both the natal charts, there are not very favourable signatures with respect to getting progeny bliss. This is because, in the natal chart of ABC, the lord of 5th house Saturn is placed in the 2nd house in retrograde motion and debilitated Mars is giving aspect on the house of children. Therefore, this planetary configuration does not indicate very favourable results with respect to enjoyment of progeny bliss.

At the same time, the natal chart of XYZ also does not indicate very favourable signature from the viewpoint of progeny bliss. There might be some problem to conceive in this stage of life. This is because, in her birth chart also, retrograde Saturn is the lord of house of children, which is placed in the 6th house and debilitated Mars is giving aspect on the same house. Therefore, this signifies that XYZ might face certain problem to conceive as well as to enjoy progeny bliss in her life.

However, despite of the good indication of Nadi Milapak score of both of you with respect to the happiness of children, the house of children of both the horoscopes do not indicate favourable result in this regard.

Areas of emotional attraction between you and your partner's horoscope

In any horoscope, ascendant represents the complete personality of an individual. According to the Ascendant Matching, ABC belongs to Libra ascendant and XYZ belongs to Virgo ascendant. Both the ascendants are forming a mediocre level 23 degree relationship with each other, which shows that both of you could share a mediocre level compatibility together on behavioral, ideological and thinking grounds. However, the two of you are emotionally attached to each other and give due respect to each others feelings. It can be said that your relationship is based on mutual understanding.

According to the lord of ascendants in both the charts, ABC's ascendant lord Venus is placed in the sign Leo whereas XYZ's ascendant lord Mercury is placed in its own sign Virgo. Both the ascendant lords are forming an average level 42 degree relationship together, which signifies that both of you might give preference to your individual feelings and interest. Therefore, such kind of tendency should be avoided for the smooth functioning of this relationship and both of you are required to make some adjustments to maintain balance in your relationship.

Planet Sun represents the soul in any horoscope, which defines the intimacy level in the romantic relationship. According to the Sun Matching of both the horoscopes, the planet Sun is placed in the sign Cancer in the birth chart of ABC and it is placed in the sign Virgo in the birth chart of XYZ. Both the Suns are forming a relationship of 73 degrees, which is a mediocre level favorable relationship. Therefore, it signifies that both could give preferences to individual feelings and there could be mediocre level intimacy and emotional attraction between both of you.

Moon signifies mental compatibility and sub-consciousness in the horoscope. Therefore, as per the Moon Matching, ABC's Moon is in sign Gemini whereas XYZ's Moon is in sign Libra. The two Moons are forming a mediocre level auspicious relationship of 139 degrees, which indicates good matching on mental level and similarity in your thinking to some extent. Therefore, in summary, according to the overall analysis of above said astrological combinations, there could be mediocre level emotional attraction between both of you.

Potential for material and financial prosperity

In the Nakshatra Milapak, Bhakut Milapak test is crucial test for the financial prosperity and well being of the couple in a relationship or marriage, but the natal charts of both of you have not scored any points in this test. Therefore, financial front cannot said to be very fulfilling in this relationship. In other words, the two of you may disagree on financial and material issues in the relationship. Both of you could have your own views regarding finances and its management and would often differ on financial matters. Moreover, the Moon signs are forming a 5/9 relationship, which indicates individual financial interest and independent decision with respect to financial matters.

However, the individual financial analysis of both the horoscopes indicates very good financial prosperity for both of you. Despite of differences on financial issues, both of you could enjoy sound financial position on personal level. This is because, in the natal chart of ABC, the lord of house of income Sun is placed in the house of profession. So, he may get good financial return of his efforts in professional life. However, the house of wealth lord Mars is in debilitated position and retrograde Saturn is placed in the same house. Therefore, this planetary placement does not indicate very good stability on financial front or accumulation of wealth in his life. However, the house of expenditure lord Mercury is placed in the ascendant. It indicates that his expenses could be reasonable and he could be able to create some wealth by controlling his expenses. Since, currently he is under the main period of retrograde Saturn till February 2011 from last 19 years, so it cannot said to be very favorable and supportive period for him with respect to finances. However, from February 2011, he will be under the main period of favorable and supportive planet Mercury, which could give him good financial prosperity as well as enjoyment of material comforts and pleasures in life.

At the same time, according to the horoscope of XYZ, planet Moon is the lord of house of income, which is placed in the house of wealth but debilitated Mars is placed in the house of income. Therefore, it signifies that she might have good income in her life, but there could be also certain ups and downs in personal financial position. However, the house of expenditure lord Sun is posited in the ascendant, which indicates that her expenditure could be balanced and controlled. Even then accumulating wealth could be challenge for her. According to Dasha of planets, currently she is under the influence of the main period of lord of ascendant Mercury from May 1994 to May 2011. Therefore, she was going through the best phase of her life with respect to income as well as accumulating wealth along with enjoying material comforts and pleasures in her life. However, after that, for next 7 years, the main period of Ketu cannot be said much favorable in this regard. So, she should make her financial plan accordingly.

Sexual compatibility of the two individuals.

A major ingredient of a harmonious relationship is sexual compatibility. First there has to be a strong mutual sexual attraction. Then it must translate itself into a physical act which can satisfy the sensual needs of the two individuals.

ABCD's Mars is in the 6th house in Aquarius which will tend to make him very passionate. But it has made 6/8 axis with BCLD's Venus which is not favorable. But it has made 3/11 axis with her Mars which is very favorable.

BCLD's Mars makes 2/12 axis with ABCD's Venus which is favorable whereas her Venus makes 3/11 axis with ABCD's Venus which is also favorable.

In sum it can be said that there will be enough sexual attraction between the two and the encounters will be both tender and passionate but the problem will be synchronicity. There may be occasional 'Not tonight dear's from both side. Both being very sensitive (and BCLD being very touchy about rejections) this can become a sticky problem. If both are understanding and can stoke the fires of passion (instead of feeling hurt and rejected) they can have their ways with a little bit patience and enjoy their sexuality greatly.

Scope of improving the quality of life by coming together and living together

The scope of improvement always remains present in any relationship. Both of you are also required to put in sincere efforts to make your relationship better.

According to the Martian Dynamics, ABC and XYZ both are Aanshik Manglik. This is because in the natal chart of ABC, Mars is posited in 10th house, where as in his Moon chart Mars is situated in the 2nd house in its debilitated sign Cancer. In the Navamsha chart, (the 9th harmonic chart) Mars is placed in the 10th house. All these signatures indicate that he has an Aanshik Manglik horoscope.

At the same time, in the natal chart of XYZ, Mars is posited in the 11th house. In the Moon chart, Mars is posited in the 10th house and in the Navamsha chart (the 9th harmonic chart), Mars is posited in the 7th house. Therefore, all the bad planetary influence in a horoscope could neutralize the bad influence of the other horoscope, where as both of you have debilitated Mars in your horoscopes, which could take you closer despite of some differences on some issues.

In conclusion, both of you should try to be more cooperating and adjusting in this relationship. Effort from both the sides should be equal because improving this relationship lies on the shoulders of both of you. In the horoscope of ABC, the position of Rahu in his ascendant indicates that he might not find himself comfortable for a long time in any relationship. So, he should understand the feelings of other person and try to be more stable to take this relationship up to next level.

Conclusion

Since I have already given the analysis of the Nakshatra Milapak of both of you, so I am not going to repeat the same here. Therefore, according to all the analysis, you yourself can take a decision that you should move ahead with this relationship or not. This is because there could be some disagreement on financial matters as well as certain ups and downs in relationship and the level of intimacy could be mediocre. Two of you could be able to enjoy a mediocre level blissful relationship together.

Since both of you have also reached that stage of life where individual thinking and feelings are already developed, which is normal, so both should accept this truth and take this relationship further. Since, according to the transit of planets and Dasha chakra (the sequence of main/sub period of planets) of both the horoscopes, the period till May 2011 is very favourable and supportive for the enjoyment of romantic life for both of you. However, after that, there could be situation of disagreement where maintaining this relationship for a long time could be a difficult task for both of you. Therefore, both of you should put your best effort to take advantage of this favourable time and give the shape to this romantic relationship.
