Your natal affinity to choice, motivation & preference of career path

❖ Choice of career as per your “Varna”.

From our natal chart, our Varna is calculated based on the Nakshatra location of Moon in our natal chart.

The original Varnashram was created to assign the division of labor in the production and distribution system of the economy. A person’s Varna indicated his core competence based on his personality and intrinsic nature to be best suited for a particular function in the society. It was not a hereditary system.

We give below the different functions associated with each of the 4 Varna classifications.

In Bhagavat Gita, Lord Sree Krishna had mentioned about 4 Gunas, based on which 4 Varnas were created according to the kind of work (Karma), a person is supposed to perform in his/her life as per the qualities the person has inherited based on environment and circumstances and past Karma. These 4 kinds of works are necessary to maintain the smooth functioning of the society. These qualities were purely based on the person’s natural talents and skill. This was an unique system but later on it got degenerated into the evils of Cast system which was purely based on heredity. Man is essentially a social animal. For his survival and prosperity, he has to interact with other people also. He has clear cut duties and responsibilities towards performing special functions which help the society to sustain and to grow and make progress.

These 4 Varnas are as follows:

People who by choice and independently, are involved in production and distribution of goods and services belong to “Vaishya Varna”.

People who by choice offer their services to others in the society based on their special skill and strength belong to “Kshatriya Varna”.

People who by choice offers their labour and skill completely to and individual or to an organization against fixed wages belong to “Shudra Varna”.

People who are not directly involved in any production or distribution of goods and services but have special skill and wisdom for which the society collectively recognizes and rewards or compensates them materially belong to “Brahman Varna”.

In today’s global economy, the choices of professions or the different kinds of work that people perform are vast than what they were in ancient times, and every day new profession or new areas of work are emerging, but at fundamental level this classification into 4 Varnas are still very much valid.

Take control of your destiny!

As per your horoscope, Vedic astrology can decide you belong to which of the 4 Varnas. This is strictly based on your chart and has nothing to do with your hereditary status. A brahman's child can be shudra or vice versa.

Your birth chart indicates that you belong to Kshatriya Varna. So, the career related with same can be said the most suitable work field for you.

❖ Choice of career as per the sign elements and sign types.

Answers to your specific career concern

❖ Your Concern:

No salary increase from last 4 years. Will it ever get better? How can I control my anger at work? How can people trust me?

❖ Our Answer:

Till January, 2017, you had been undergoing Shani Dhaiya and may be because of the same and debilitated Jupiter main period, there has been no revision of pay structure for you. Things will definitely get better with the passage of time and I feel that you will get increment during third quarter this year failing which you would definitely get much-awaited increment in remuneration during second half 2018.

2019 looks better in terms of career related matters and there may be significant jump in pay scale thanks to the Mercury sub period as this benefic planet is posited in the 9th house of destiny in your horoscope.

Frustration of not getting increment in remuneration is manifesting in your demeanour with your others at work, as you tend to give vent to your angry feelings to other. You need to learn how to control emotion, as work place is an ideal place where you can show or throw your tantrums on others as it will portray you in a negative line. You should meditate daily in order to have better grasp over your mind and anger so that you can know when to control the anger. Yoga, meditation and Pranayaam should help you to deal with anger management quite effectively.

You cannot make people trust you as loyalty or trust cannot be built in a day rather it takes years to build trust among people about someone or somebody. Your department may have acted against you and caused the trust deficit among you and people around you. It is a long-drawn process. However with the change in your department, you can certainly help people to reinforce trust in you and start believing and reposing faith on you and your ability. You need patience and proper guidance in this direction. Recite Hanuman Chalisa regularly as this will help you to calm down your agitated and petulant mind.
