Evaluation of multiple natal charts based on vital information provided by you

I have evaluated in detail more than ten birth charts of different timings between 03:00 AM and 05:00 AM of your birth day i.e. of 13th September 1977, which have been prepared by working on the birth details and other information provided by you.

After going through all this process and after analyzing all these charts in order to rectify your time of birth, I have come to a conclusion that your current birth time 04:45 AM is very close to your actual time of birth. This is because the birth chart of 04:45 AM is accurately predicting all the events in your life in better way. Hence, in my opinion, the birth time of 04:45 AM +/- 2 minutes is your correct birth time. Therefore, whatever sources has provided you this time of birth, I will appreciate the same.

It is to be noted that the information provided by you about your physical features strongly indicates that your birth should be in Leo ascendant, which was effective from 04:02 AM to 06:20 AM on 13th September 1977. In addition, as per Leo ascendant, there is placement of Ketu in 8th house, which confirms urinary problem since birth. Therefore, considering the above fact and your physical features, I am quite confident that your birth should be during the time period when Leo ascendant was effective on 13th September 1977 and the birth time 04:45 given by you is very close to your actual birth time.

Findings of your birth time in near proximity

After determining your ascendant as Leo, when I was evaluating the past events of your life like the time period of education completion, getting your first job, starting of your independent source on income, period of marriage, your change of job in July 2007, which was a big mistake on your part and returning back to previous job on lower position, then the Dasha period of planets was very close to the time of birth of 04:45 AM. However, your information about the major accident in August 2002 where just your life was saved was very important and useful to rectify your time of birth as 04:45 AM. This is because you were under the influence of the sub-sub period of Saturn in the sub period of Rahu in the main period of Mars from 25th July 2002 to 24th September 2002 when this life threatening accident has taken place. Since the main period of 4th house lord Mars was an accidental period, whereas Rahu is placed in Marak house i.e. in 2nd house and Saturn is the lord of Marak house i.e. of 7th house. Therefore, combination of these three planets was fatal for you and it has given an accident, which was close to death.

Though the time period of your second accident on 6th December 2016 is getting better certified with the birth chart of 05:02 AM, but we cannot go with one incident and cannot ignore other information.

Therefore, as per the above analysis, it is concluded that the birth chart of 04:45 AM is almost accurate +/- 2 minutes because it authenticates all the incidents of your life in better manner. So, you may use this time of birth for all your future astrological consultation.
