These are not planets, but just two points like Ascendant in the chart, but they are treated as planets and their movements are captured with respect to the zodiac signs. In all Vedic astrology calculations and predictions, we deal with this set of 9 planets including the two nodes. The trans Saturn planets (Ur, Ne and Pl) are not included in the calculations and predictions of Vedic astrology. These does not affect either the accuracy or in substance, either the calculations or predictions in Vedic astrology.

Introduction

Vedic astrology provides a roadmap to the strengths and weaknesses inherent in an individual. Vedic astrology horoscope chart can reveal spiritual and physical abilities to past life Karma, relationships with family, friends, spouse, or partners, as well as celestially prescribed professional, marital, or social destiny. Vedic astrology also has its technology of astrological remedies. It is not enough to predict what will happen good or bad in a person's life, Vedic astrologer also prescribes use of Gem stones, Yantras, Mantras to help the individual redirect the course of his/her negative Karma and/or enhance their positive Karma.

What is a horoscope chart?

A horoscope chart in Vedic astrology essentially indicates the position of all planets at the exact date, time and place of birth for a person in terms of their longitude with respect to the 12 zodiac signs. It also indicates the person's unique signature which is the rising Zodiac sign and the degree, which is the exact eastern horizon from the place, where a person is born at the exact time and date of his birth. This is called the Ascendant of the person. Ascendant is the most unique signature of a person. The Ascendant sign in the horoscope is called the first house of a person. This is followed by second/third till 12th house of the chart in the anticlockwise direction. Ascendant, Planets and Houses are the three elements of horoscope chart. There are different formats in Vedic astrology to represent a horoscope chart. These formats are either fixed sign position or fixed house position.

Relationship between planets and signs in your horoscope chart

There are 12 Zodiac signs as most of us are familiar with. Each of the 12 Zodiac signs is ruled by one of the 7 planets from Sun to Saturn. Then these planets are called lord of the particular Zodiac sign. Sun and Moon rules only one zodiac sign each. The rest of the 5 planets rule two Zodiac signs each. For those of you, who are not familiar with this, we give below a table which lists out all the Zodiac signs and their ruling planets. Also an important hypothesis of Vedic astrology for each of the 7 planets and also for the two nodes, there is one sign in which the particular planet gives it's maximum positive results, which is called it's sign of exaltation and the sign which is it's opposite or 180 degrees apart in the Zodiac gives the most negative results of the specific planet, and that is called the sign of debilitation of the planet.

Every planet has some positive results as well as some negative results. Moon, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury are considered as naturally beneficial planets in a person's chart. Sun, Mars, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu are considered as naturally malefic planets in a person's chart.

Further every sign is characterized by it's sign type as well as by it's sign element. There are 3 types of Sign types called Cardinal, Mutable and Fixed. There are 4 types of Sign elements called Fire, Earth, Air and Water. Between them they give specific characteristics to each of the 12 zodiac signs.

Sign type & element table

Sign type explanation

Cardinal Types

Cardinal or Active types show the positive, active, dynamic, initial or guiding phase of their respective element. It is the principle of movement, gives impulse, direction, and expression; but may cause disturbance, agitation and too forceful or too frequent action.

Cardinal types or those who have planets predominately in Cardinal signs are people of action. They are positive, expressive, outgoing and have a high sense of achievement and accomplishment. They are wilful, aggressive, impulsive, and dynamic and often become successful as leaders. Most high achievers and executive types are of this quality. However, they can burn themselves out as a result of excess activity, and can be insensitive to the needs of others.

Cardinal types need to cultivate more sensitivity, flexibility, patience and introversion and develop more consistency and stability.

Fixed Types

Fixed types show static, stable, neutral, formal or enduring phase of their respective element. It is the condition of form or substance; it gives continuity and consistency; but it may cause inertia, resistance and stagnation.

Fixed types or those who have planets predominately in Fixed signs are firm, stable and determined in who they are and what they do. They like to continue, pursue and uphold things.

They are quite settled in themselves and often unwilling to modify their opinions or question themselves. They are consistent, have strong faith and do not waver in their beliefs. However, they can be obstinate, fixated and incapable of accepting any other point of view but their own. They are often possessive and may accumulate much in life, finding it difficult to let go

Fixed types need to develop more initiative and attempt more new things, particularly new ways of looking at things. They need to be more sensitive, adaptable and open. They also need to make certain that what they are holding on to is to the truth and not just some pattern of negativity, emotionality or selfishness.

Mutable types

Mutable types swing between Cardinal and Fixed. They are flexible, adaptable, and capable of many things. They often have many talents, interests, curiosities and skills. They are prone to be interactive and may find it difficult to act. In addition they may be inconsistent and unable to stick to things. They are often mental types who like to think, calculate, worry or reflect and they can become too introverted or overly preoccupied with themselves.

Mutable types need to have more initiative, daring and willingness to act. They need to set aside their thoughts and work through their actions. Above all, they need to direct their sensitivity in a more conscious direction so that things do not so easily disturb them. They need to use their sensitivity consciously as a tool rather than have it react against them unconsciously.

Sign element explanation

Each sign further relates to one of the four elements of Earth, Water, Fire or Air. Known as Bhuta or Tatwa in Vedic Astrology, a planet will take on the sign characteristics when occupying that specific sign.

How the 7 planets are distributed among different sign types and sign elements in your Horoscope.

Planet type and element table

Type of Sign/Elements of Sign	Fire	Earth	Air	Water
Cardinal				Ve
Fixed		Ke, Me, Su,		Ra
Mutable			Sa	Ma, Mo, Ju

In your chart the dominant sign type is Fixed Sign type. The dominant sign element is water element. Ambition, Change and Creativity will be the three most motivating factors in your life.

Strength & Functionalities of planets

Vedic astrology has developed a complex mathematical model to determine the strengths and functionality of each planet in your horoscope. We have first tried to explain the methodology on how to judge the overall strength and their beneficial or challenging role in your chart. Basically Vedic astrology calculates 3 types of strengths of each planet from your horoscope. They are “Shadbala” which gives the absolute modular strength of each planet irrespective of whether it is for good effects or bad effects in your life. The second strength is “Vimsopak Bal” which decides how much beneficial or challenging the planet will be in your life during its period/sub-periods/sub-sub periods. It is not that all planets are effective at all time in your life. Each of them will have definite time windows in your life when they will be effective. We will talk about planetary time periods later in this report. The third strength will be how the planet will be beneficial or challenging during it’s transit from one sign to another as they are in constant motion. This strength is called the “Ashtakbarga Transit” strength.

Further Mars, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn sometimes during every year appear to move backwards called retrograde motion for some time. If a person is born when some of these planets were retrograde then in the horoscope chart it will be indicated it is retrograde. As a general thumb rule, retrograde planets are less effective than planets in direct motion. Also retrograde planets have some special effects throughout our life. Sun and Moon never have retrograde motion. Rahu and Ketu are always in retrograde motion. Also in the natal chart, a sign may contain too many planets. If a particular planet is too close to Sun within the same sign it is called combust planet. The planet loses it’s own strength by being too close to Sun.

We now calculate the overall strength of all the planets in your horoscope and their functionality in your life. We have also explained our methodology to calculate the quantitative strength of each planet in your horoscope, and have presented the result in following table.

Explanation of special status of planets

Interpretation of three pillars of your horoscope chart

THE THREE PIVOTS OF YOUR HOROSCOPE

Your Ascendant, Sun Sign and Moon Sign are like a TRIPOD on which your entire life is based.

We would address these for you one by one;

Your ascendant interpretation

Ascendant is the most unique signature in our horoscope. Ascendant (Janma Lagna) in our chart signifies the way we shall express our body, mind and soul to the world at large in this life.

Your Ascendant is Sagittarius. Sagittarius is dual sign with Fire element. As sign number 9, it shows grace, beneficence, completion and full harmony, the manifestation of the will in action. As a Sagittarian individual, you will usually project the positive side of Jupiter. You will have a positive attitude in life, a generous nature, an expansive spirit, and a moral, religious or philosophical disposition. You are usually warm and friendly, and will try to make yourself noticed and can easily become active or involved with the expansion of the social forces you are open up to. You would like to stay within the convention of the society, group, or organization with which you are involved. You will possess critical mind and strong opinions and would be prone to become self-righteous. You may be too discriminating and fault finding and you may be unable to see your own limitations. You are likely to have a very low emotional quotient. However, you will have a sense of play or partying, which may become self indulgence or group indulgence. Family bonding will have a less of meaning for you except to the extent of your sense of duties and responsibilities. What I mean is you are unlikely to have a strong overtly emotional bonding with your family represented by your spouse or children. But you are lucky in life and you are used to things happening easily to you.

Your Sun sign interpretation

The Sun can be the warm light of your heart that shows the way, or it can be the harsh light of your ego, which obscures it. Being true to the Sun-that is, following the deepest dictates of your hearth-will enable you to manage not only your relationships strongly and successfully, but all other areas of your life too. Following the path that is illuminated by your Sun sign will help you do just this. Regard this as a directive from the highest command. Merely following your ego that is, a false sense of what you are will blind you to who you truly are.

Your Sun Sign is Taurus

NATURE:

Determination and tolerance are the main characteristics of your nature. You may appear to be obstinate to some, but are gentle and soft towards those you are fond of. Your fortitude helps you to weather great upheavals-mental or physical, with calmness, where others flounder. You do not get excited easily, but if you do, it's extremely difficult to calm you down.

You are generally a reserved person. There is some force in your personality that makes others acknowledge you as the leader. You can influence others through the sheer force of your personality. You are confident and self-respecting. You are also patient and cautious by nature. You tend to be forceful both in words and in deeds and so, you appear to others to be wiser, richer and more learned than you actually are.

You have a powerful memory and are able to quote from the works of others but may lack originality. You have very clear likes and dislikes. You are willing to give your all to the person you love. No sacrifice will be too big for this.

Similarly, you would single-mindedly try to defeat your opponent in an open battle. You hate deceit, cunning and betrayal. You may even tend to tell your opponent, your battle plans, before hand, even at the cost of defeat. Once you make up your mind to fight-you do so in full throttle and this continues until one of the two is decimated.

No matter what you say and how hardworking you are, you may have complete belief in fate. This may make you completely dependent on God or may turn you into an idler, who shirks work.

You are fond of good things in life and are a gourmet in matters of food. You like to entertain friends with your hospitality at home.

You experience things deeply and have clearly defined attitudes. As you are very sincere, you expect the same from others and this may lead to mild jealousy in the sphere of affection especially in your love life. You may use harsh words, or do something to express your anger, which you may regret later. On the whole, your nature is a meeting point of desire and determination. It is difficult to say which will take precedence over the others. You like to follow traditions and are somewhat against change or revolution in the field of religion, society or politics. You are unshakable in what you believe and nothing can change it. If, somehow, you do change, then the new thing you accept becomes the best in your eyes.

You will be known for your tolerance, stability and patience. You have oratory capabilities and your speech may have more appeal to emotions rather than to reason.

LUCK:

You are a fortunate person, especially in matters of money, wealth, property etc. You are most likely to inherit wealth and property of parents, relatives' etc. You may earn from land, or land related ventures, shares, etc. You won't have to struggle much to achieve things. You will make significant financial progress, if you curb your natural inclination towards idling and the love of comfort.

Analysis of Vimsottari Dasha periods

Your Dasha Signature

Principles of Dasha System

The Dasha Vichar or planetary periods of Vedic Astrology provide a unique and comprehensive system for judging the effects of planets throughout the development of our lives. They are the most accurate system for showing how the planets distribute their effects through time and the different stages of our lives.

The most common of these systems of planetary periods is the Vimshottari Dasha or the "120-year cycle". This follows a predetermined sequence, the starting point of which is determined by the longitude of Moon at the time of birth. In it, each of the seven major planets plus the two Lunar Nodes are given specific periods. This entire life span is divided into different main periods of planets and within this main period, there are sub-periods of all the planets and then each sub-period can be divided into sub-sub-periods of planets. The effects of the planets become most operative during the Main Dasha or the sub-Dasha. The transit effects and the relation between the Main planet and the sub-planet also determine whether the good effects will be more predominant or the bad ones.

We give your Dasha Table below;

Answer to your specific primary Concern

Concerns: Health and finance.

Answer: In your birth chart, the 1st & 4th Lord Jupiter is well placed in the 4th house with 8th Lord Moon forming Jeeva Yoga. This is good for your health. But as Rahu & Ketu are debilitated in the 6th & 12th house & afflicted Mercury and Sun in the 6th house, so it may cause some turmoil in regard to your health in future. Saturn also aspects the 1st house & Moon, Mars & Jupiter in Pisces. You may suffer from blood pressure, intestine, insomnia and rheumatism. You may also suffer from disease of prostrate or lower portion of your body.

The time frame after 19th June 2039 is not good for your health as you will pass through the main period of debilitated Rahu.

Venus is lord of house of income and gains in your birth chart. It is not very well placed in dusthana 8th house. Saturn is lord of house of net wealth and savings and it is well placed in the Kendra seventh house. So, it is creating a balance in matters related to finances.

Astrological remedies to enhance prosperity & happiness in life

You must wear a green Emerald of 5 carats. It may be mounted on a gold ring and worn on the little finger of your right hand, first adorned on a Wednesday morning, after bath and prayers

You should also strengthen 9th Lord Sun by wearing a Ruby weighing 5 carats. It must be mounted on a gold ring and worn on the ring finger of your right hand. The gem must be put on first on a Sunday morning after bath & prayers. This is needed for your finance, fortune & success.
