Introduction to Karma Index

Karma Index is an extremely important tool that can manage your future and your life. It depicts your astrological autograph from birth to the end of your life.

According to Vedic Astrology, your life in this world is the sum total of the effects of your Karma from all your past lives and the effects of your Karma in this life.

In any human lifetime, we experience the effects of two types of Karma--our Past Karma that we inherit from our previous lives and our Present Karma, one that we perform in this life by our own choice and will power. What we inherit from our previous lives is the net balance of good and bad deeds, which we call our destiny.

Our Karma in this life begins immediately after our birth, from the moment we utter our first cry and take the first breath. As human life is God's highest creation, God in His infinite mercy has bestowed us with higher faculties, a will to shape our own future and destiny and moral sense to discriminate between good and evil. In making everyday choices, we shape and participate in creating our Present Karma. This Karma Index will help you in understanding this better and help you shape your Karma, as Vedic Astrology truly believes that human beings are unique creations of God as only human beings can shape their destiny through their will and effort.

The Karma Index that we are presenting you is the projected balance sheet of your life. Vedic Astrology has captured this balance sheet from your natal horoscope, based on the information we already have on file for you. As the permanent Chief Executive Officer of your life, we feel that you must have this most important Strategic Tool to manage your life. By analysing your Karma Index, you can gauge the rise and fall of your aspects and change the negative trends of your horoscope. This accounting system is perfect as only God can make it, where every debit and credit entry is recorded, so every good deed in this world will negate negative trends from the past. We at Cyber Astro, after considerable research into ancient Vedic Astrology and with the help of information technology are presenting the rise and fall of different aspects of your life in the form of a projected balance sheet. It will change the way; you look at yourself, your life and the world around you

❖ What is Karma Index?

Your Karma Index is the cumulative Net astrological effects of 7 different planets-- Sun, Moon, Mars, Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn--computed on the basis of your Natal Horoscope as per the birth details supplied by you.

We have calculated the net effect of each planet (Algebraic sum of its positive and negative effects) for each day. The algebraic sum of net effect of all the 7 different planets for any given day is your Karma Index for the day. These effects have been computed on the basis of ancient Vedic Astrological principles and are unique just for you. Your Karma Index chart that is reflected below, is the line-graph of the cumulative value of the daily Karma Index plotted on the vertical axis. The horizontal axis represents the time period.

❖ What is the Cumulative Karma Index?

The cumulative Karma Index (the blue line in the chart) is the collective value of the daily Karma Index in the graph.

The starting day of this graph is July 1, 2017 and the ending day is June 30, 2027. The cumulative Karma Index for the first day represents the index for July 1, 2017. The Karma Index for the second day is equal to algebraic sum of the index for July 1, 2017 plus July 2, 2017 so on. The cumulative Karma Index is like the running balance sheet of an individual's life.

The graph also shows Moving Average (black line) for 182 days. The moving average is calculated as follows: the first day value is equal to the average value of first 182 days daily value of Karma Index. The second day moving average value is the average of 182 days daily value of karma Index counting from the second day and so on so forth.

The third graph in the background (E.C.G. type graph in orange) represents the actual daily value of Karma Index for the day.

Cyber Astro believes that through Astrology, we should be able to identify the bullish and bearish periods of our life and know the turning points. Guided by these turning points, we can take full advantage of the bullish periods and take corrective action for the bearish periods.

You can immediately identify by year, the rise and fall in different indices such as Wealth, Efforts, and Happiness, including the Karma Index. The advantage of looking at all the indexes in a table format is that you can compare different years. The normal way we usually we recollect the past is "that year was very good for me" or "that year was very painful"

The high and low values and negative values will immediately prompt you to a process of introspection and may give you a better insight – if a year was good, why was it so and if a year was bad, in spite of your efforts why was it such? Suddenly the past will become much clearer to you, and you will be fully equipped to handle your Karma Index to manage your future.
