Our Answers to your Questions

❖ Your First Question:

My husband is going through tough financial, mental and career times, will this situation improve and when?

❖ Our Answer:

Dear XYZ

It is our practice to analyze the exact period of the relevant question, through a Question Chart, in the horary process and then have it confirmed through the inherent possibilities displayed by your natal birth-chart, it being the relevant chart corresponding to the specific cosmic signature at the time of your birth that holds good for the individual through one's life.

I have analyzed the planetary configurations in the question chart as well as in the natal chart of your husband with respect to your above question regarding improvement on his mental health, financial and career front. However, the astrological signature in both the charts does not indicate very favorable results regarding your question. Hence, I am not looking any great hope for the improvement on the same in near future. So, I cannot pass more than 30% hope to you to have any big expectation on the same. This is because, in the question chart, there is dual sign placed in the ascendant as well as in the house of marriage where as lord of both the houses are placed in retrograde motion and lord of ascendant Mercury is placed in its debilitated sign Pisces. Hence, this astrological combination in question chart does not indicates much improvement in coming future but it may take even worst shape in coming months. Though, there is a small indication for improvement during the months of November and December 2018 but I cannot pass more than 30% hope for the same.

At the same time, according to the birth chart of your husband, at present, he is under the sub period of Mars in the main period of Mercury from 4th February 2018 to 31st January 2019, which cannot be said a supportive period for improvement in current situation. Since, planet Mars is the lord of his 2nd house and 7th house, which are called as Marak houses, it means a time period of fatal house lord. Hence, during this period, he could be violent in his behavior and can take extreme steps too. Not only this, due to having a strong Manglik influence in his horoscope, he might try to break this married life also. In addition to this, if by the grace of GOD, he is going to pass the time period of Mars, then after this, the sub period of Rahu from 1st February 2019 to 20th August 2021 could also not support much to get improvement on mental, financial or on career front. More on this, he would come under the influence of Shani Dhaiya from January 2020 till January 2023, which would also create further problems in his life. Hence, I am feeling bad but I cannot pass you more than 30% hope to see improvement in his present situation, be it his career, finance or his mental health.

Even then, you can hope for some betterment then only during the month of November and December 2018 as per the combined indication of both the charts. if the same would take place.

❖ Your second Question:

Will my husband and I get relief in our marriage problems? If yes, when? What I can do to maintain peace and improve our life together?

❖ Our Answer:

Regarding your above question, I analysed in detail the planetary configurations in the question chart as well as in your birth chart and in the birth chart of your husband. However, none of the charts is indicating very favorable results to get relief in your married life in near future. This is because the indication of question chart remains same as it has indicated for the answer of your first question. So, we cannot hope much for the improvement or relief in marital problems.

I have already indicated above that as per the birth chart of husband, at present, the sub period of Mars in the main period of Mercury from 4th February 2018 to 31st January 2019, could try to break this marital relationship. He might adopt an aggressive approach and some time could be violent in behavior because Mars could try to break married life due to strong Manglik influence in his horoscope. Furthermore, he would be under the sub period of Rahu from till August 2021, which is also not having sympathy with your married life and start of Shani Dhaiya from January 2020 could give worst shape to his mental health. Hence, as per his birth chart, you can hope for some improvement on his health or relief in marital problems after August 2021 only.

At the same time, your birth chart is also not indicating much favorable situation in coming future because the sub period of Ketu in main period of Rahu from 17th July 2018 to 4th August 2019 could create lots of problem in married life. Since, planet Ketu creates confusion and misunderstandings in relationship so, it might also tempt you to go out of this married life. Hence, the period from July 2018 to January 2019 (when both of you would be under the influence of the Mars and Ketu) could be a deciding time to the fate of your married life for coming future. However, if this married life could survive till July 2019 then you can have little hope to sustain the same for coming future. Even then, till August 2021 the challenges would be remain in married life and you have to put your effort every day to take this married life forward.

Regarding your question that what you can do to maintain peace improve your life together, I would like to inform you that please organize as soon as a Manglik Shanti Yagna and Mahamrituanjay Yagna for husband to save your married life and to get help on his health. I would also advise you to wear a 7 carat Gomed in silver ring on middle finger of right hand on a Saturday till January 2026 and also wear a Shree Yantra Pendent, which would enhance stability in your life as we as increase intimacy with him.

❖ Your third Question:

Considering our current situation due to my husband's current situation- his mental condition, no money, hard to get in to his desired career, when is the best time to have children?

❖ Our Answer:

Regarding your above question, I would like to inform you that if you would get the message of my answer of your previous two questions then at this point of time this question is not having much meaning in your current married life.

Hence, I would advise you to please wait for the time period till August 2021, when your husband would come out of negative planetary influence and could see some improvement on his health. Otherwise, definitely I would not advise to plan to conceive and have child at least till July 2019 when you would face sub period of Ketu and he would have the sub period of Mars till January 2019.

However, the favourable and supportive time to conceive and have children would also get started after July 2019 as per your birth chart and after August 2021, as per the birth chart of your husband. Hence, I would advise you to please wait for the right time, let this negative and challenging time for his health and your married life should pass. Then only you should plan to conceive and have children in your married life.
