Our Answers to Your Questions

❖ Your 1st Question:

When will I conceive and when will we have our first baby? Will it be healthy baby?

❖ Our Answer:

Dear XYZ

It is our practice to analyze the exact period of the relevant question, through a Question Chart, in the horary process and then have it confirmed through the inherent possibilities displayed by your natal birth-chart, it being the relevant chart corresponding to the specific cosmic signature at the time of your birth that holds good for the individual through one's life.

I have evaluated your birth chart as well as the birth chart of your wife and the question chart with respect to your child birth related question. However, the astrological signatures in all three charts are indicating some delay with respect to conceive as well as birth of your first child. This is because, in the question chart there is dual sign in the ascendant and lord of ascendant Jupiter is placed in fixed sign, which indicates delay to conceive as well as in birth of first child. However, placement of movable sign in the house of children and also placement of house of children lord Mars in movable sign indicates favourable to conceive in coming future. More on this, placement of house of children lord Mars in its exalted sign Capricorn and its aspect on house of children would ensure to have childbirth in your life. Hence, the above said planetary combination of question chart indicates some delay to conceive and get your first child but 1st half of year 2019 would be supportive as per question chart.

At the same time, according to your birth chart aspect of planet Jupiter on house of children indicates getting child birth in coming future but aspect of Saturn indicates delay on the same. More on this, there is also aspect of planet Saturn on house of children in the birth chart of your wife. So it indicates delay in conception as well as in birth of child. Since, this delay indicates child birth at the age of 30 or after 30 years of age and you have already crossed the age of 30 and your wife is also around the age of 30, so you can hope for the success in coming future. One more information I would like to pass to you that planet Venus is debilitated in your birth chart. So, chances would be for low sperm count. Hence, you should go for the proper medical check up to plan for the child.

Regarding your question about conception and child birth, I would like to inform you that the birth charts of both of you indicates very supportive and favourable during the year 2020. Since, the transit of Jupiter would be very supportive for conception and child birth during the period from November 2019 to November 2020, so chances are high for the same. At the same time, as per Dasha period of planets in your birth chart, at present, the period from June 2018 to December 2020 is very favourable for child birth. Especially, the period from September 2019 to August 2020 indicates for conception and birth of child. In addition to this, as per Dasha period of planets in the birth chart of your wife, the period from March 2020 to April 2021 would be very strong and favourable for conception and child birth. Hence, I cannot pass much hope to conceive during the year 2019, but definitely both of you would be proud mother and father during the year 2020 and 2021. Especially, chances would be very high during the year 2020 only to conceive and for child birth by end of year 2020. As per indication in both the charts, there is strong possibility to get a healthy child in your life.

In conclusion, as per the combined analysis of all three charts, you may expect the birth of your first child during the year 2020 to become a proud mother and father. However, before that I would advise both of you to for the proper medical checkup and also go for chanting of Santan Gopal Mantra to neutralize the bad impact of some of planets on the house of children in both the charts.

❖ Your 2nd Question:

Whether it will be a baby boy or a baby girl?

Our Answer:

Regarding your above question, I would like to inform you that as per the astrological combinations related to the house of children of both the charts, there is strong possibility to have baby boy as your first child. Since, there is placement of male sign in your house of children and house of children lord Mars is also a male planet whereas a male planet Jupiter is giving aspect on house of children. Hence, chances are very high for first child as baby boy. Though, in the birth chart of your wife, there is placement of female sign in the house of children, but its lord is placed in male sign and receiving aspect of Jupiter, so chances are high for a baby boy in both the charts.

❖ Your 3rd Question:

How many children are in our destiny? What are the remedies to conceive?

❖ Our Answer:

I have also studied both the birth charts with respect to your above question, but ignored the question chart, which could not play any role regarding answer of this question. However, I would like to inform you that keeping in mind today's life style; astrologically it is very difficult to predict the number of children. Even then according to the astrological signatures of both the charts there is indication of 2 to 3 children in your life. This is because both the charts are receiving aspect of benefic planet Jupiter, which is natural signifier of children and lords of house of children in both the charts are also confirming the same. Regarding remedies to conceive, I am going to suggest you below.

Recommendation of Most Suitable Astrological Remedies

I would suggest both of you to chant Santan Gopal Mantra at least for 108 times daily and also perform Santan Gopal Yagna to remove obstacles with respect to conceive and get progeny bliss in your life.

Currently your wife is under the main period of Rahu till July 2035. So, she should wear a 7 carat Gomed in a silver ring in her right hand's middle finger on a Saturday to take advantage of this main period to conceive and for every aspect of life.
