There are 7 planets from Sun to Saturn. There are two nodes of Moon which by definition will be always 180 degrees from each other in the horoscope. These are not planets, but just two points like Ascendant in the chart, but they are treated as planets and their movements are captured with respect to the zodiac signs.

In all Vedic astrology calculations and predictions, we deal with this set of 9 planets including the two nodes. The trans Saturn planets (Ur, Ne and Pl) are not included in the calculations and predictions of Vedic astrology. These does not affect either the accuracy or in substance, either the calculations or predictions in Vedic astrology.

Introduction

Vedic astrology provides a roadmap to the strengths and weaknesses inherent in an individual. Vedic astrology horoscope chart can reveal spiritual and physical abilities to past life Karma, relationships with family, friends, spouse, or partners, as well as celestially prescribed professional, marital, or social destiny. Vedic astrology also has it's technology of astrological remedies. It is not enough to predict what will happen good or bad in a person's life, Vedic astrologer also prescribes use of Gem stones, Yantras, Mantras to help the individual redirect the course of his/her negative Karma and/or enhance their positive Karma.

What is a horoscope chart?

A horoscope chart in Vedic astrology essentially indicates the position of all planets at the exact date, time and place of birth for a person in terms of their longitude with respect to the 12 zodiac signs.

It also indicates the person's unique signature which is the rising zodiac sign and the degree, which is the exact eastern horizon from the place, where a person is born at the exact time and date of his birth. This is called the Ascendant of the person. Ascendant is the most unique signature of a person. The Ascendant sign in the horoscope is called the first house of a person. This is followed by second/third till 12th house of the chart in the anticlockwise direction. Ascendant, Planets and Houses are the three elements of horoscope chart. There are different formats in Vedic astrology to represent a horoscope chart. These formats are either fixed sign position or fixed house position.

Relationship between planets and signs in your horoscope chart

There are 12 Zodiac signs as most of us are familiar with. Each of the 12 Zodiac signs is ruled by one of the 7 planets from Sun to Saturn. Then these planets are called lord of the particular Zodiac sign. Sun and Moon rules only one zodiac sign each. The rest of the 5 planets rule two Zodiac signs each. For those of you, who are not familiar with this, we give below a table which lists out all the Zodiac signs and their ruling planets. Also an important hypothesis of Vedic astrology for each of the 7 planets and also for the two nodes, there is one sign in which the particular planet gives its maximum positive results, which is called its sign of exaltation and the sign which is its opposite or 180 degrees apart in the Zodiac gives the most negative results of the specific planet, and that is called the sign of debilitation of the planet.

Every planet has some positive results as well as some negative results. Moon, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury are considered as naturally beneficial planets in a person's chart. Sun, Mars, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu are considered as naturally malefic planets in a person's chart.

Later on in this report, we will also discuss that for every ascendant some planets because of their ruler ship, will be considered functionally beneficial planets for the chart or functionally malefic planets for the chart or they will be functionally neutral planet for the chart irrespective of their natural benefic/malefic status.

Further every sign is characterized by its sign type as well as by its sign element. There are 3 types of Sign types called Cardinal, Mutable and Fixed. There are 4 types of Sign elements called Fire, Earth, Air and Water. Between them they give specific characteristics to each of the 12 zodiac signs.

❖ Sign type & element table

❖ Sign type explanation

Cardinal Types

Cardinal or Active types show the positive, active, dynamic, initial or guiding phase of their respective element. It is the principle of movement, gives impulse, direction, and expression; but may cause disturbance, agitation and too forceful or too frequent action.

Cardinal types or those who have planets predominately in Cardinal signs are people of action. They are positive, expressive, outgoing and have a high sense of achievement and accomplishment. They are wilful, aggressive, impulsive, and dynamic and often become successful as leaders. Most high achievers and executive types are of this quality. However, they can burn themselves out as a result of excess activity, and can be insensitive to the needs of others.

Cardinal types need to cultivate more sensitivity, flexibility, patience and introversion and develop more consistency and stability.

Fixed Types

Fixed types show static, stable, neutral, formal or enduring phase of their respective element. It is the condition of form or substance; it gives continuity and consistency; but it may cause inertia, resistance and stagnation.

Fixed types or those who have planets predominately in Fixed signs are firm, stable and determined in who they are and what they do. They like to continue, pursue and uphold things. They are quite settled in themselves and often unwilling to modify their opinions or question themselves. They are consistent, have strong faith and do not waver in their beliefs. However, they can be obstinate, fixated and incapable of accepting any other point of view but their own. They are often possessive and may accumulate much in life, finding it difficult to let go

Fixed types need to develop more initiative and attempt more new things, particularly new ways of looking at things. They need to be more sensitive, adaptable and open. They also need to make certain that what they are holding on to is to the truth and not just some pattern of negativity, emotionality or selfishness.

Mutable types

Mutable types swing between Cardinal and Fixed. They are flexible, adaptable, and capable of many things. They often have many talents, interests, curiosities and skills. They are prone to be interactive and may find it difficult to act. In addition they may be inconsistent and unable to stick to things. They are often mental types who like to think, calculate, worry or reflect and they can become too introverted or overly preoccupied with themselves.

Mutable types need to have more initiative, daring and willingness to act. They need to set aside their thoughts and work through their actions. Above all, they need to direct their sensitivity in a more conscious direction so that things do not so easily disturb them. They need to use their sensitivity consciously as a tool rather than have it react against them unconsciously.

❖ Sign element explanation

Each sign further relates to one of the four elements of Earth, Water, Fire or Air. Known as Bhuta or Tatwa in Vedic Astrology, a planet will take on the sign characteristics when occupying that specific sign.

How the 7 planets are distributed among different sign types and sign elements in your Horoscope.

❖ Planet type and element table

| Type of Sign/Elements of Sign | Fire | Earth | Air | Water |
|-------------------------------|--------|------------|--------|-------|
| Cardinal | Ke | | Ra, Ve | |
| Fixed | Mo, Me | | | Sa |
| Mutable | | Ju, Ma, Su | | |

In your chart the dominant sign type is cardinal Sign type. The dominant sign element is fire & earth element.

Aspiration, transformation and inventiveness will be the three most motivating factors in your life.

❖ Strength & Functionalities of planets

Vedic astrology has developed a complex mathematical model to determine the strengths and functionality of each planet in your horoscope. We have first tried to explain the methodology on how to judge the overall strength and their beneficial or challenging role in your chart. Basically Vedic astrology calculates 3 types of strengths of each planet from your horoscope. They are "Shadbala" which gives the absolute modular strength of each planet irrespective of whether it is for good effects or bad effects in your life. The second strength is "Vimsopak Bal" which decides how much beneficial or challenging the planet will be in your life during its period/sub-periods/sub-sub periods. It is not that all planets are effective at all time in your life. Each of them will have definite time windows in your life when they will be effective. We will talk about planetary time periods later in this report. The third strength will be how the planet will be beneficial or challenging during it's transit from one sign to another as they are in constant motion. This strength is called the "Ashtakbarga Transit" strength.

Further Mars, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn sometimes during every year appear to move backwards called retrograde motion for some time. If a person is born when some of these planets were retrograde then in the horoscope chart it will be indicated it is retrograde. As a general thumb rule, retrograde planets are less effective than planets in direct motion. Also retrograde planets have some special effects throughout our life. Sun and Moon never have retrograde motion. Rahu and Ketu are always in retrograde motion. Also in the natal chart, a sign may contain too many planets. If a particular planet is too close to Sun within the same sign it is called combust planet. The planet loses its own strength by being too close to Sun.

We now calculate the overall strength of all the planets in your horoscope and their functionality in your life. We have also explained our methodology to calculate the quantitative strength of each planet in your horoscope, and have presented the result in following table.

❖ Explanation of special status of planets

| Planet Name | Location Sign | Location House | Rulership House | Natural Benefic / | Functional Status | Special Status | Planet Strength | Planet Strength | Planet Strength |

Remarks

Rahu/Ketu are always retrograde.

*Planet strength by method A is Shad Bal and method B is Vimsopaka Bal and method C is Ashtakabarga..

By method A, SB or Shad Bal strength can be maximum 2. This measure of strength tells us the relative impact of planets in our life irrespective of its nature (good or bad).

By method B, VB or Vimsopaka Bal strength can be maximum 20 and minimum 0. This also gives the overall beneficial nature of the planet in our life particularly in its period and sub-period operating.

By method C, AB or Ashtakabarga can be maximum 8 and minimum 0. At 8 the planet is totally auspicious and beneficial on our life. At 0, the planet is totally inauspicious in our life.

Ashtakabarga strength gives us a more definite indications of how the planet will behave in its transit and in its association with other planets in the chart.

Interpretation of three pillars of your horoscope chart

The three pivots of your horoscope

Your Ascendant, Sun Sign and Moon Sign are like a TRIPOD on which your entire life is based.

We would address these for you one by one;

❖ Your ascendant interpretation

Ascendant is the most unique signature in our horoscope. Ascendant (Janma Lagna) in our chart signifies the way we shall express our body, mind and soul to the world at large in this life.

Male ascendants:

Your Ascendant is Capricorn which is ruled by Saturn. This is also a cardinal sign but with earth element. As sign number 10, it shows the state of power, order and complete organization. Capricorn is often the lowest and the highest of signs in terms of achievement in life. It is the sign of practical realization and usually Capricorn person are very practical and pragmatic and are not emotional or very sensitive. On the material level, this can create much worldliness and obstinacy and make the person selfish. You will be hardworking, persevering and tenacious, and have the power of eventual great accomplishments. You may start slowly in life often encounter many obstacles along the way, but thereby create the energy for long term success.

What is true for life, the same will be true in relationship. The life together may not start with great love and passion, but eventually you can build a strong emotional bonding with your life partner. Because you have to work for yourself and learn to value everything that will come through your own effort and experience. You do not start with great expectation in life together, but if your partner is patient and sensitive to your nature eventually both of you will be able to build a strong emotional bonding which will then sustain the life together.

❖ Your Sun sign interpretation

The Sun can be the warm light of your heart that shows the way, or it can be the harsh light of your ego, which obscures it. Being true to the Sun-that is, following the deepest dictates of your hearth-will enable you to manage not only your relationships strongly and successfully, but all other areas of your life too. Following the path that is illuminated by your Sun sign will help you do just this. Regard this as a directive from the highest command. Merely following your ego that is, a false sense of what you are will blind you to who you truly are.

Sun Sign Predictions - Your Sun Sign is Virgo

NATURE:

You are torn between two opposite trends in your nature. One is pure and untainted like a virgin, the other is cunning and self-serving like the worldly-wise.

It depends entirely on you, as to which of these you choose to follow. You may be innocent and pure to begin with, but as you mature in years, quite a few temptations will make you cunning and worldly-wise. You may lead a blameless, honest life (with religious learning) if you try, but you can also slip to the lowest of waywardness, if you do not overcome temptations. The material world has more hold on you than the spiritual world; ideas and ideals have no use for you unless they can be translated to reality. You may believe in the spiritual or the extra-sensory world, but if they cannot be used to any advantage of the society or the country, they have no use for you. You value outward behavior, more than the inner-self or heart.

You are sharp and quick-witted and have a considerable amount of business sense. You are adept at making others do the work for you. You are alert and careful about yourself and so cannot be fooled or cheated easily. Adversity will not be able to destroy your alertness and quick-witted-nature.

You'll evaluate or assess everything according to what you believe. Right or wrong, you'll hold your view to be the right one and no amount of debate/discussion can make you budge from your stand. You are a stickler for method and order and will always be attracted towards obeying rules rather than breaking them. Even when you want to bring about a change in any field, you will first like to bring the matter within the ambit of contrived order and then proceed to make changes.

Since you dislike disorder, you will feel very uncomfortable if you have to face a situation where there is anarchy. Since you desire order and balance in your surroundings, you like to be well dressed and have a well appointed home.

You have a natural ability for critical analysis. Just as you are quick to see the weakness and faults in others, similarly, you are also aware of your weaknesses and faults and will be able to rectify them easily with a slight effort.

Since you are a good judge of your own character and are aware of your strength, you are quite conceited about them. Hence, if you are a worldly character, you may become self-serving and your only goal will be to better yourself materially. On the other hand, if you attain true knowledge of yourself, you will advance in the ethical sphere keeping in mind the purity and sanctity of things.

Overall, just as you can be a saint, you can also be a rogue, depending on what you choose to be. Whatever you do to serve your selfish end or others, you know exactly what you are doing. It is because of this that you can adapt to any situation. If you can lessen or get rid of your self-serving trait, your saintly character may turn out to be an ideal for others.

LUCK:

You have the power to shape your own fate, because you have to build it up with hard work. Opportunities will not come your way, instead, you have to create them with untiring effort and perseverance. You need domestic peace for your progress. Adverse conditions will hamper your ability to work to your full potential. The kind of fortune you have in the last phase of your life will depend on the deeds you perform in your middle age.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN LIFE:

Significant changes will happen in your life at the age of 21, 31, 41 and 50.

YOUR SPECIAL POTENTIAL:

You are resourceful, quick-witted, hardworking persevering and have the ability to adapt yourself to any other situation. This makes you suitable for business, but you will be more successful as an agent or a representative of someone else's business venture rather than having your own. You will be successful in business with chemicals, medicine and food. Other than these, you are also capable of dealing with work related to the literary field-e.g. press, publishing, teaching, writing and editing. More opportunities for complete success may come owning your own business rather than professional employment.

MARRIAGE:

Ideally, you should marry someone who is born in one of these zodiac signs-Capricorn, Pieces, Taurus, and is quite a bit younger to you. If you are a woman, you should marry a man whose birth month is not opposed to your birth sign and with whom you do not have much difference in age.

HEALTH:

You will generally enjoy good health and will rarely fall sick, even when you do, you'll recover quickly and easily. But you tend to suffer from a fetish about illness. Due to this you'll tend to take unnecessary medicines to cure imagined or future ailments and hence, harm yourself. Due to your physiology, you are prone to the harmful effects of the toxins in medicine and they do not leave your system easily. Be careful of disease of the urinary tract and injury from weapons. You may suffer from neuralgia and indigestion.

You are a child of nature and it is nature that is most beneficial for you-so be in touch with his-open space, fresh air etc. and eat light and simple food.

You also need peace and, cleanliness for good health. Avoid caffeine in all kinds of beverages like-tea, coffee, and nicotine in tobacco. Alcohol is also like poison for you.

❖ Your Moon sign interpretation

Moon in our horoscope shows our general propensity for relationship and how we will interact others. The Moon gives us sensitivity of human feeling, a strong social consciousness, and a need to exchange emotions. It makes us require that our feelings are recognized in life and shared by others.

You are born under Capricorn ascendant and Leo Moon Sign respectively, you are an energetic person, never satisfied unless you are up and doing. You are strong in mind and strong in body and full of enthusiasm for the work in hand. You have unlimited courage, and all these qualities combined tend to make your life varied.

You are not going to stay at one thing just because you have set out in that direction. Unfortunately for you, you will not always count up the pros and cons of the change as carefully as you should and this impulsiveness may often lead you into difficulties.

There are many reasons for thinking that you will move from place to place a good deal and probably you will see much of the world. There are little points but they help to mar your success. Moreover, avoid being a rolling stone (avoid changes) especially in the later part of life. You do not want your own way in many things. In fact, you are very amenable, taken all round.

❖ Other planets interpretation

Mars in Virgo:

The Planet Mars enables you to gain much wealth and property. Your children are very active and bright and you will be willing to sacrifice wealth and comfort to any cause which arouses your sympathies. You will be devoted to religion and the elderly, and will have the best cars as well as the best property.

Mercury in Leo:

In your own deep thinking or intelligence, you try to be philosophical and wise. You tend towards the expansive and progressive stance considering the generosity. You function more on the mental plane rather than on the physical. As a result you may establish your superiority in the realm of intellectual achievements

Jupiter in Virgo:

A gentle and studious nature is produced by Virgo in the Third house, though you may become quite angry when provoked. Generally speaking, you are respectful to elders, god-fearing person in totality. It makes you intellectual, learned in both religious and classical literature, and extensively renowned.

Venus in Libra:

When Venus is in this sign you become vitalized with inner strength but feel shy in expressing your basic internal urges. Consequently there is some morbidity in your social relationships. You wish to be included in social congregations, but will be a bad mixer.

Saturn in Scorpio:

You will be immersed in spiritual exploration and inquiry. You will succeed in retrieving many secrets of nature. Your personal life will be a mystery; isolated from society.

Rahu in Libra:

The Planet Rahu will make you a great spiritualist in the sense that you will understand the significance of esoteric and exoteric religions. Though you yourself will adhere to some esoteric fond of spirituality, you will emphasize the value of traditional religion in your dealings with ordinary people.

Ketu in Aries:

Ketu is our critical faculty, seeking self-knowledge and self-importance, in exchange for which it receives humiliation in the short run, followed by enduring recognition and respectability. In the third house, its impulse often causes you to be maladjusted to society.

However, your respect for others depends on the real worth of a person, based on inherent qualities.

Retrograde, Exalted and Debilitated planets in your horoscope.

Analysis of Vimsottari Dasha periods

Your Dasha Signature

Principles of Dasha System

The Dasha Vichar or planetary periods of Vedic Astrology provide a unique and comprehensive system for judging the effects of planets throughout the development of our lives. They are the most accurate system for showing how the planets distribute their effects through time and the different stages of our lives.

The most common of these systems of planetary periods is the Vimshottari Dasha or the "120-year cycle". This follows a predetermined sequence, the starting point of which is determined by the longitude of Moon at the time of birth. In it, each of the seven major planets plus the two Lunar Nodes are given specific periods. This entire life span is divided into different main periods of planets and within this main period, there are sub-periods of all the planets and then each sub-period can be divided into sub-sub-periods of planets. The effects of the planets become most operative during the Main Dasha or the sub-Dasha. The transit effects and the relation between the Main planet and the sub-planet also determine whether the good effects will be more predominant or the bad ones.
