There are 7 planets from Sun to Saturn. There are two nodes of Moon which by definition will be always 180 degrees from each other in the horoscope. These are not planets, but just two points like Ascendant in the chart, but they are treated as planets and their movements are captured with respect to the zodiac signs. In all Vedic astrological calculations and predictions, we deal with this set of 9 planets including the two nodes. The trans Saturn planets (Ur, Ne and Pl) are not included in the calculations and predictions of Vedic astrology. These do not affect either the accuracy or in substance, either the calculations or predictions in Vedic astrology.

Introduction

Vedic astrology provides a roadmap to the strengths and weaknesses inherent in an individual. Vedic astrology horoscope chart can reveal spiritual and physical abilities to past life Karma, relationships with family, friends, spouse, or partners, as well as celestially prescribed professional, marital, or social destiny. Vedic astrology also has its technology of astrological remedies. It is not enough to predict what will happen good or bad in a person's life, Vedic astrologer also prescribes use of Gem stones, Yantras, Mantras to help the individual redirect the course of his/her negative Karma and/or enhance their positive Karma.

What is a horoscope chart?

A horoscope chart in Vedic astrology essentially indicates the position of all planets at the exact date, time and place of birth for a person in terms of their longitude with respect to the 12 zodiac signs. It also indicates the person's unique signature which is the rising Zodiac sign and the degree, which is the exact eastern horizon from the place, where a person is born at the exact time and date of his birth. This is called the Ascendant of the person. Ascendant is the most unique signature of a person. The Ascendant sign in the horoscope is called the first house of a person. This is followed by second/third till 12th house of the chart in the anticlockwise direction. Ascendant, Planets and Houses are the three elements of horoscope chart. There are different formats in Vedic astrology to represent a horoscope chart. These formats are either fixed sign position or fixed house position.

Relationship between planets and signs in your horoscope chart

There are 12 Zodiac signs as most of us are familiar with. Each of the 12 Zodiac signs is ruled by one of the 7 planets from Sun to Saturn. Then these planets are called lord of the particular Zodiac sign. Sun and Moon rule only one zodiac sign each. The rest of the 5 planets rule two Zodiac signs each. For those of you, who are not familiar with this, we give below a table which lists out all the Zodiac signs and their ruling planets. Also an important hypothesis of Vedic astrology for each of the 7 planets and also for the two nodes, there is one sign in which the particular planet gives it's maximum positive results, which is called it's sign of exaltation and the sign which is it's opposite or 180 degrees apart in the Zodiac gives the most negative results of the specific planet, and that is called the sign of debilitation of the planet.

Every planet has some positive results as well as some negative results. Moon, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury are considered as naturally beneficial planets in a person's chart. Sun, Mars, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu are considered as naturally malefic planets in a person's chart.

Later on in this report, we will also discuss that for every ascendant some planets because of their ruler ship, will be considered functionally beneficial planets for the chart or functionally malefic planets for the chart or they will be functionally neutral planet for the chart irrespective of their natural benefic/malefic status.

Further every sign is characterised by it's sign type as well as by it's sign element. There are 3 types of Sign types called Cardinal, Mutable and Fixed. There are 4 types of Sign elements called Fire, Earth, Air and Water. Between them they give specific characteristics to each of the 12 zodiac signs.

❖ Sign type explanation

Cardinal Types

Cardinal or Active types show the positive, active, dynamic, initial or guiding phase of their respective element. It is the principle of movement, gives impulse, direction, and expression; but may cause disturbance, agitation and too forceful or too frequent action.

Cardinal types or those who have planets predominately in Cardinal signs are people of action. They are positive, expressive, outgoing and have a high sense of achievement and accomplishment. They are wilful, aggressive, impulsive, and dynamic and often become successful as leaders. Most high achievers and executive types are of this quality. However, they can burn themselves out as a result of excess activity, and can be insensitive to the needs of others.

Cardinal types need to cultivate more sensitivity, flexibility, patience and introversion and develop more consistency and stability.

Fixed Types

Fixed types show static, stable, neutral, formal or enduring phase of their respective element. It is the condition of form or substance; it gives continuity and consistency; but it may cause inertia, resistance and stagnation.

Fixed types or those who have planets predominately in Fixed signs are firm, stable and determined in who they are and what they do. They like to continue, pursue and uphold things. They are quite settled in themselves and often unwilling to modify their opinions or question themselves. They are consistent, have strong faith and do not waver in their beliefs. However, they can be obstinate, fixated and incapable of accepting any other point of view but their own. They are often possessive and may accumulate much in life, finding it difficult to let go.

Fixed types need to develop more initiative and attempt more new things, particularly new ways of looking at things. They need to be more sensitive, adaptable and open. They also need to make certain that what they are holding on to is to the truth and not just some pattern of negativity, emotionality or selfishness.

Mutable types

Mutable types swing between Cardinal and Fixed. They are flexible, adaptable, and capable of many things. They often have many talents, interests, curiosities and skills. They are prone to be interactive and may find it difficult to act. In addition they may be inconsistent and unable to stick to things. They are often mental types who like to think, calculate, worry or reflect and they can become too introverted or overly preoccupied with themselves.

Mutable types need to have more initiative, daring and willingness to act. They need to set aside their thoughts and work through their actions. Above all, they need to direct their sensitivity in a more conscious direction so that things do not so easily disturb them. They need to use their sensitivity consciously as a tool rather than have it react against them unconsciously.

❖ Signelementexplanation

Each sign further relates to one of the four elements of Earth, Water, Fire or Air. Known as Bhuta or Tatwa in Vedic Astrology, a planet will take on the sign characteristics when occupying that specific sign.

How the 7 planets are distributed among different sign types and sign elements in your Horoscope.

❖ Planetttypeandelementtable

| TypeofSign/Elementsof Sign | Fire | Air | Earth | Water |
|----------------------------|--------|-------|-------|-------|
| Cardinal | | Sa,Mo | | Su,Me |
| Fixed | | | | |
| Mutable | Ma, Ra | Ju,Ke | Ve | |

In your chart the dominant sign type is Movable Sign type. The dominant sign element is Water & Air element. Ambition, Change and Creativity will be the three most motivating factors in your life.

❖ Strength & Functionalities of planets

Vedic astrology has developed a complex mathematical model to determine the strengths and functionality of each planet in your horoscope. We have first tried to explain the methodology on how to judge the overall strength and their beneficial or challenging role in your chart. Basically Vedic astrology calculates 3 types of strengths of each planet from your horoscope. They are “Shadbala” which gives the absolute modular strength of each planet irrespective of whether it is for good effects or bad effects in your life. The second strength is “Vimsopak Bal” which decides how much beneficial or challenging the planet will be in your life during its period/sub-periods/sub-sub periods. It is not that all planets are effective at all time in your life. Each of them will have definite time windows in your life when they will be effective. We will talk about planetary time periods later in this report. The third strength will be how the planet will be beneficial or challenging during its transit from one sign to another as they are in constant motion. This strength is called the “Ashtakbarga Transit” strength.

Further Mars, Mercury, Venus, Jupiter and Saturn sometimes during every year appear to move backwards called retrograde motion for some time. If a person is born when some of these planets were retrograde then in the horoscope chart it will be indicated it is retrograde. As a general thumb rule, retrograde planets are less effective than planets in direct motion. Also retrograde planets have some special effects throughout our life. Sun and Moon never have retrograde motion. Rahu and Ketu are always in retrograde motion. Also in the natal chart, a sign may contain too many planets. If a particular planet is too close to Sun within the same sign it is called combust planet. The planet loses its own strength by being too close to Sun.

We now calculate the overall strength of all the planets in your horoscope and their functionality in your life. We have also explained our methodology to calculate the quantitative strength of each planet in your horoscope, and have presented the result in following table.

Interpretation of three pillars of your horoscope chart

THE THREE PIVOTS OF YOUR HOROSCOPE

Your Ascendant, Sun Sign and Moon Sign are like a TRIPOD on which your entire life is based. We would address these for you one by one;

❖ Your ascendant interpretation

Ascendant is the most unique signature in our horoscope. Ascendant (Janma Lagna) in our chart signifies the way we shall express our body, mind and soul to the world at large in this life.

Your Ascendant is Scorpio which is ruled by Mars. Scorpio is a fixed sign with water element. As sign number 8, it shows the need for balance and stability on a deeper or psychic level. Scorpio is a very profound and mysterious sign. More evolved Scorpio person would like to explore the depths of mind and may have interest in the occult and Yoga (tantra). You may be constantly engaged in overcoming negative forces and thus see life as a battle between light and darkness. This can make you quite obsessed, which will make it impossible for your partner to have a rational or intellectual dialogue or exchange with you. You will be intelligent and perceptive, but will be cautious and hesitant to reveal what you actually think or to expose yourself even to your life partner. You are intense, secretive, introverted and sometimes troubled. You will have an active sub-conscious and must keep your emotions clear and pure, free of envy and attachment, or otherwise you can get stuck on an emotional level.

❖ Your Sun sign interpretation

The Sun can be the warm light of your heart that shows the way, or it can be the harsh light of your ego, which obscures it. Being true to the Sun—that is, following the deepest dictates of your heart—will enable you to manage not only your relationships strongly and successfully, but all other areas of your life too. Following the path that is illuminated by your Sun sign will help you do just this. Regard this as a directive from the highest command. Merely following your ego that is, a false sense of what you are will blind you to who you truly are.

Your Sun Sign is Cancer. NATURE

You are imaginative and moody. An individuality of your nature is that you may have a very uncommon hobby or whim and it is this uniqueness in you that attracts people to you.

You are sensitive and want people to praise you but do not like to say so openly. Although you appear to be indifferent to praise from others, it has great importance for you. You need others to encourage and inspire you. If some one misunderstands you, you give up and get demoralized.

You have a sharp memory and hence retain knowledge, which is both useful and also irrelevant. You are attracted to all that is old—customs, traditions, history and antiques. You may even prefer the company of people older to you.

You are very romantic by nature and affectionate and loving. Although you are deeply attached to your spouse and children, you are also fond of travelling and change. This may not let you to be in one place for long. While you are in a new place—you may miss your home and vice-versa. This may cause tension in your domestic life.

You are not afraid to work hard, but you prefer to do everything your own way. You do not like to take orders but if someone entrusts you with a job, you work tirelessly and sincerely to complete it according to his wishes.

Outwardly, you seem to be careful with your money and like to keep aside something for a rainy day, but being imaginative and a romantic at heart, you sometimes are a miser and at others, a spendthrift.

You have the feminine traits of being soft and gentle. You want to win over everyone with love and sympathy and because of it you get close to people quite easily and also gain popularity. But you have to guard against the danger of getting involved with undesirable characters that may take advantage of your sympathetic nature and land you in trouble. You are naturally inclined to matters--spiritual and extra-sensory, and with a little effort, given the right conditions, you may attain some spiritual powers.

You may even be a good medium for the physical world. But you need to exercise great caution before engaging in activities like planchette as undesirable influences from the other world may harm you both mentally and cause moral degeneration.

Your future will depend upon how much restrain you can exercise over your impulsive nature. One main hindrance to your progress is your tendency to cry over spilt milk. You'll waste time regretting the past, instead of planning for the future. This will cause you to lose some big opportunities to progress in life. If you can restrain this habit, you will progress according to your abilities and be successful.

MARRIAGE

You shouldn't marry too early as your liking may change as you grow older. It is advisable to marry a mature person rather than very young, as you will be attracted more to the former. Similarly, if you are a woman, it is advisable to marry an older person. Signs most compatible for you are Pieces, Scorpio and Taurus for love and marriage.

HEALTH

You do not have a strong constitution. You may suffer from indigestion, hence exercise caution over food. The main reason for your ailment will be anxiety. It may obstruct the circulation of blood leading to constipation, indigestion, localized clot, gout and such chronic diseases. You may suffer from hysteria and hypochondria. Not being well will make you restless and no matter how trivial the ailment, you'll think of the worst. Sometimes this may create an illness that's not there. Analysis of Vimsottari Dasha periods

Your Dasha Signature

Principles of Dasha System

The Dasha Vichar or planetary periods of Vedic Astrology provide a unique and comprehensive system for judging the effects of planets throughout the development of our lives. They are the most accurate system for showing how the planets distribute their effects through time and the different stages of our lives.

The most common of these systems of planetary periods is the Vimshottari Dasha or the "120-year cycle". This follows a predetermined sequence, the starting point of which is determined by the longitude of Moon at the time of birth. In it, each of the seven major planets plus the two Lunar Nodes are given specific periods. This entire life span is divided into different main periods of planets and within this main period, there are sub-periods of all the planets and then each sub-period can be divided into sub-sub-periods of planets. The effects of the planets become most operative during the Main Dasha or the sub-Dasha. The transit effects and the relation between the Main planet and the sub-planet also determine whether the good effects will be more predominant or the bad ones.

We give your Dasha Table below;
